CFYS updates and events

Myer Horowitz Award Winners
We are pleased to announce this year’s Myer Horowitz Award winners. Beth Tuinstra and Hector Vazquez Cordoba will be presenting at the International Society for Music Education Commission on Music Policy: Cultural, Educational, and Mass Media Conference in Munich. Nicole Legg will be presenting her research poster at the Association for Psychological Science conference in San Francisco. Larissa Alabe Padua will be presenting at the Society for the Scientific Study of Reading in Brighton, UK. We thank Dr. Horowitz for his continuing support of CFYS student affiliates.

The Mary Catherine and Gloria Marshall Award Winner
The Mary Catherine and Gloria Marshall Award supports a CFYS student affiliate whose research has the potential to positively impact youth and families. We are pleased to announce this year’s winner: Jennifer Gruno, a graduate student in the School of Exercise Science, Physical Health and Education. The Mary Catherine & Gloria Marshall Memorial Award was created thanks to a generous donation from Gloria and Duncan Marshall. A $1325 award is available for a student whose research is directed at improving the lives of youth and their families. Applicants must be graduate students and members of the Centre for Youth & Society.
