Fellowship Criteria

Two or more $1,000 fellowships will be awarded by the Chair in Transgender Studies to community-based scholars of any gender pursuing research at UVic in any field, including creative or performative activity, that will benefit Trans+ people. Priority will be given to those who self-identify as Trans+, and to those who have not previously received an award from the Chair in Transgender Studies. Further consideration will be given to the project’s budget.

Indigenous, Black, and all People of Colour are especially encouraged to apply.

In addition to this form please submit the following items to the Faculty of Graduate Studies, c/o Donja Roberts (scholoff@uvic.ca), Scholarship Officer University Centre A207:

1. A 500-word statement about your research
2. A current copy of your resume or CV
3. A letter from a leader of a community organization attesting to the value of the project
4. A budget for project
5. An optional 250-word personal statement

The deadline to submit your completed application package is April 30th, 2024.

All applicants will be notified of the results. The successful candidates will be selected by a committee of the Chair in Transgender Studies. For complete details visit: <https://www.uvic.ca/research/transchair/what-we-do/apply/index.php>.
