

Kylar W. Broadus is a Black man of trans experience that has been a pioneer in the movement as an attorney, long-time activist, public speaker, author, lobbyist, and professor. Broadus is known worldwide for his work in the LGBT and Trans movements.

Kylar has advocated for Trans/GNC/Non-binary and LGB clients in the court, before legislatures and the U.S. Civil Rights Commission and the U.S. Congress for decades. Recognized for his more than 30 years contribution to the movement a few years ago by GLAAD and Liberty Mutual. He is the founder of the Trans People of Color Coalition the only national organization dedicated to the civil rights of all transgender people of color. Broadus is on the board of the National Black Justice Coalition, where for three years he was board chair. He currently serves on the Freedom For All Americans board of directors. He was awarded a Proclamation by the City Attorney's Office of Los Angeles. He was recognized by the Prosecuting Attorney's Office of King's County in Brooklyn, New York in 2018 for his contributions to the legal field. He has been in various documentaries and media as he continues to fight for social justice.