Many of us aspire to “age in place,” an idea promoted in mainstream media, and publications aimed specifically at seniors. But what does it mean to “age in place”? What are some practical considerations that need to be confronted in planning for quality of life into our senior years? This talk presented by Mary Ellen Purkis, PhD, will explore this question of how best to think about aging in place.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:
Mary Ellen Purkis, PhD, Professor Emeritus in School of Nursing at University of Victoria, has focused her research in the area of Home Care Nursing.

For more information, please contact us at 250-721-6369 or at aging@uvic.ca