

CONSTITUTION OF THE UVIC RETIREES ASSOCIATION

1. The name of the society shall be the UVic Retirees Association.
2. The purpose of the Association is to support the interest and needs of the Association Members and the mission of the University of Victoria, as a member funded society.

BYLAWS OF THE UVIC RETIREES ASSOCIATION (THE “UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA RETIREES ASSOCIATION”, “ASSOCIATION” OR “UVRA”)

Part 1 – INTERPRETATION

1.1 FUNCTION

In support of the enhancement of interest in the University and each other, the purposes of the Association are:

- a) to provide for engagement, activities, and other benefits for those of pensionable age (55+) from the University of Victoria, from University of Victoria affiliated or associated organizations or entities, and from former employees of other universities; and to share in a community of interest and facilitate communication with each other and with the University of Victoria;
- b) to provide an organization through which benefits may be arranged for members;
- c) to administer the financial affairs of the Association including, but not limited to, memberships, contributions, and other financial items appropriate to the purposes of the Association;
- d) to offer to assist in the resolution of conflicts which may arise between the University of Victoria and its retired employees or their survivors, or between the University and employees who are about to retire; and,
- e) to offer to assist the University of Victoria in the design, preparation and delivery of lectures, seminars, and other activities and initiatives which are consistent with the purposes of the Association and the mission of the University.

1.2 DEFINITIONS

In these Bylaws, unless the context otherwise requires:

- a) “Act” means the Societies Act of British Columbia as amended from time to time;
- b) “Member” means any Full Member, Honorary Member, Associate Member or Spousal Member of the Association;
- c) “Board” means the directors of the Association;
- d) “Nominating Committee” means the Committee appointed by the Board and chaired by the Past President who prepare the slate of candidates for directors and Officers for election or appointment as needed for each annual general meeting. The Nominating Committee shall have representatives from as many employee groups as possible.

- e) "Officer" means a director holding the position of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary or Past President of the Association;
- f) "Spouse" means a legally married partner or a common law partner of a member who has been living in a relationship as a partner for at least twelve (12) continuous months or is the parent of a child of the partnership by birth or adoption.

1.3 SINGULAR AND PLURAL

Words imparting the singular include the plural and vice versa.

1.4 DEFINITIONS IN ACT APPLY

The definitions in the Act apply to these Bylaws.

1.5 CONFLICT WITH ACT OR REGULATIONS

If there is conflict between these Bylaws and the Act or the regulations under the Act, the Act or the regulations, as the case may be, prevail.

Part 2 – MEMBERSHIP

2.1 CATEGORIES OF MEMBERSHIP

- a) Full Member:
Former and present employees of the University of Victoria who have reached pensionable age (55) are eligible to become Full Members of the Association. On acceptance by the Association's Membership Committee and on payment of the required Membership dues, an eligible person becomes a Full Member in good standing of the Association.
- b) Honorary Member:
A person is appointed as an Honorary Member on the recommendation of the Board and the approval of the membership in recognition of exceptional service to the Association or to the University of Victoria. On approval by the membership the person becomes an Honorary Member in good standing of the Association.

c) Associate Member:

Employees of other universities and of University of Victoria affiliated institutions, organizations and entities who have reached pensionable age (55+) and who are officially retired or are planning to retire in the near future from that institution are eligible to apply to become Associate Members of the Association. On acceptance by the Association's Membership Committee and on payment of the required Associate Membership dues, an eligible person becomes an Associate Member in good standing of the Association. The number of Associate Members shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the total number of Members entitled to vote.

d) Spousal Member:

Upon reaching pensionable age (55+) the spouse of a Full Member in good standing, Associate Member in good standing or Honorary Member is eligible to apply to become a Spousal Member of the Association. On application to the Association's Membership Committee that person becomes a Spousal Member in good standing of the UVic Retirees Association. Spousal Members are not required to pay dues, are not entitled to vote and do not have direct access to any other benefits. If a spouse wishes to be entitled to vote, he or she may apply to become an Associate Member or Full Member, if eligible. Spouses of deceased Full, Honorary or Associate Members who have reached pensionable age (55+) are eligible to apply to become Associate Members with the same membership category (may assume Lifetime membership or assume Annual membership with related membership dues) as the deceased member.

2.2 RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

Only Full Members, Associate Members and Honorary Members of the Association in good standing are entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Association or on any mail or internet ballot, or to consent to a resolution of the voting Members. No member is entitled to more than one vote and may exercise that vote without any restrictions.

2.3 CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

It is the duty of members to uphold the constitution of the Association, comply with these Bylaws, and to support the Association and its Directors in achieving the purposes of the Association.

2.4 TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

A person ceases to be a Member of the Association

- a) by delivering his or her resignation in writing to the Secretary of the Association or by mailing or delivering it to the address of the Association;
- b) on his or her death;
- c) on being declared by the Board as not being in good standing; or
- d) on being expelled, pursuant to Bylaw 2.8

2.5 MEMBERSHIP PERIOD

The annual membership period shall run from April 1 to March 31. The first year of membership shall be divided into two halves and the membership dues shall be prorated according to the beginning of the half in which the Member joins. The prepaid membership period shall be for the full specified prepaid term. Annual and prepaid membership dues are not refundable.

2.6 MEMBERSHIP DUES

- a) Members shall have the choice of paying dues annually or by a lump sum prepayment for Lifetime membership in an amount as determined by the Board. Annual dues shall be due and payable April 1 of each year.
- b) Membership dues and payment structures shall be determined annually by the Board and reported to the Association at a general meeting.

2.7 MEMBER NOT IN GOOD STANDING

Members of the Association who have not paid their membership dues (annual or prepaid) by June 30 in the current annual membership period shall be deemed to be not in good standing and shall, therefore, cease to be members of the Association and will not be eligible for member benefits, for so long as those fees remain unpaid.

2.8 EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

- a) A Member, who is not a director of the Association, may be expelled from the Association by a unanimous vote of the Board if, in the opinion of that Board, the Member has taken a public action considered to be seriously detrimental to the credibility of the Association, or to the ability of the Association to achieve its purposes.

- b) A director of the Association may be expelled from the Association by approval of the membership by way of a special resolution recommended by 75% of the Board if, in the opinion of that Board, the director has taken an action considered to be seriously detrimental to the credibility of the association, or to the ability of the Association to achieve its purposes.
- c) Before a formal motion for expulsion is made, the Member or director shall be given written notice and an opportunity to appear before the Board to defend such an action and state why expulsion is not warranted.

2.9 COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

All members of committees, temporary or permanent, established by the Board, and including the Board, must be Members in good standing. A committee shall retain the right, however, to co-opt non-members as needed.

Part 3 – MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

3.1 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The annual general meeting of the Association shall be held no more than six (6) months after the end of the Association's fiscal year. All Members of the Association will be given fourteen (14) days' notice by mail of the date, time and place of the annual general meeting. Such notice must also contain a draft of any special resolution to be presented at the annual general meeting, and any slate of candidates prepared by the Nominating Committee to be elected or confirmed.

3.2 GENERAL MEETINGS

- a) A general meeting shall be held at the call of the Board or when a written requisition is delivered to the Board and each director of the Board, signed by not less than 10% of the voting members of the Association, at the time and place stipulated by the Board.
- b) The notice of the date, time and place of for such a meeting shall be given to all Members in good standing fourteen (14) days in advance by mail, and shall include a statement of the purpose of the meeting. When a special resolution is to be presented, a draft of the special resolution shall be included with the notice.

3.3 VOTING

- a) Each Full Member, Associate Member, and Honorary Member shall have one (1) vote.

- b) Voting on matters other than a special resolution or the election of Officers at a general meeting shall be by show of hands unless it is agreed by 25% of the members present that it shall be by ballot. Voting by proxy is not permitted.
- c) Voting for special resolutions, as defined in the Act, and the election of Members of the Board shall be by ballot (except when the election is by acclamation) at a general meeting.

3.4 QUORUM

- a) A quorum at any general meeting shall be at least 15 voting members present. If within one half-hour of the appointed time for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to one half-hour later on the same day, or to such other time, date and place as the members present shall determine. Members then present shall constitute a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally called.
- b) If, at any time during a general meeting, there ceases to be a quorum of voting members present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.

3.5 APPROVAL OF RESOLUTIONS

- a) Approval of special resolutions shall require a 75% majority of the ballots returned.
- b) The election or appointment of directors and all other resolutions or matters of business shall be approved by a simple majority of voting Members present.

Part 4 – THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4.1 NUMBER OF DIRECTORS ON THE BOARD

The Association must have no fewer than five (5) directors.
