Academic Writing Requirement (AWR): If you have not already satisfied UVic's Academic Writing Requirement, you will need to complete one of ENGL135, 146, 147, or another approved course. See www.uvic.ca/awr for more information. If you have satisfied the AWR you can select 1.5 units of any-level Elective.

* Have you satisfied the AWR? Yes  No  (If you are unsure, check your Administrative Transcript on your My Page.)

UVic Residency Requirement: In order to graduate, students must complete at least 30.0 of their minimum 60.0 required units at UVic. Within these 60.0 units, 21.0 units must be upper-level (300/400-level) courses, and 18.0 of those 21.0 units must be taken at UVic.

Refer to the University of Victoria Academic Calendar for a complete list of course selections. Although every attempt has been made to ensure the information on this worksheet is accurate, in the case of any discrepancy the Academic Calendar shall be considered the authority.

Reading This Worksheet

This worksheet has been designed for students who wish to complete their degree in four years. Normally, students can achieve this by registering in 7.5 units per term (15.0 units per year) in the Winter Sessions only. However, students are not required to organize their degree according to this timeline and may elect to complete their degree in more than four years, as a part time student, or by taking courses in the Summer Sessions. Refer to Undergraduate Academic Regulations within the Academic Calendar for more detailed information.

For requirements that offer a selection of courses, there is not always room on the worksheet to include all options. Where a course range is not explicitly listed, or includes an ellipsis (“...”), you should refer to the entry for your program in the Academic Calendar for a complete list of options.

Courses Already Complete

You can find a list of the courses you have already taken at UVic, a list of courses for which you have received transfer credit (if applicable), and a list of the courses you are currently registered in by reviewing your Administrative Transcript on your My Page account.

Pre- and Corequisites

Course prerequisites are listed in the Academic Calendar and must be satisfied before beginning any given course.

“Corequisites” can refer either to Course Corequisites or Program Corequisites. Any listed Course Corequisites must be completed before or at the same time as a given course. Program Corequisites (indicated on this worksheet as red courses) refers to required courses offered by schools or departments outside of a student’s major school or department.

Make sure to review the individual course and program requirements carefully before registering in order to sequence your program correctly.

Choosing Electives

Electives (indicated in Green) can be chosen from any area of study and taken in any year, as long as you meet the prerequisites. Use these courses to explore different areas of study or include a minor or second major.

Declaring Your Program

After successfully completing 12.0 units of coursework (including transfer credit), you are eligible to declare your program. To do so, complete the online Request to Declare Program form through your My Page account by visiting <http://www.uvic.ca/declareme>. Once your request has been approved, you’ll be given access to an online “Curriculum, Advising and Program Planning” (CAPP) report that allows you to track your progress towards degree completion. You can continue to use this worksheet for planning purposes, but your CAPP report is the official record used by the Office of the Registrar to determine your eligibility for graduation.

Footnotes

1. LING 181 can be used in lieu of LING 100A; however, LING 181 is restricted to students with admission to the B.Ed. or Diploma program in Indigenous Language Revitalization, or admission to the Certificate program in Aboriginal Language Revitalization.
2. Students in the Faculty of Humanities are required to complete courses in three areas of Humanities (including your program area) as well as 6.0 units of coursework outside the Faculty of Humanities to be eligible for graduation (see “Faculty Program Requirements” in the Academic Calendar for more information). When selecting your courses, make sure to include these two requirements.
3. See the Department of Linguistics Program Requirement Page within the Academic Calendar for a complete list of required courses.
4. LING 486 also fulfills the Research-Focused Course requirement.
5. LING 158, 159, 258, 259, 358, 359, 458 and 459 will ONLY count as electives within Linguistics Programs.

Student Responsibility

You are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of your registration and for determining the requirements of your program.

Always read course descriptions before you register to determine if you have the necessary prerequisites, and pay attention to notes on mutually-exclusive and cross-listed courses (pairs of courses in which credit will be awarded for only one).
