

LE, NONET Campus Cousins Applications Now Available

Supporting Indigenous Student Success at the University of Victoria

LE, NONET aims to provide a positive and welcoming experience for Indigenous students attending, accessing, exploring and transitioning to the University of Victoria. LE, NONET Campus Cousins gain leadership experience, community connections and mentoring skills in a supported environment while working as part of a team.

LE, NONET Campus Cousins are Indigenous students who are returning to UVic in September 2022. Candidates are upper level undergraduate or graduate students who are interested in hosting academic events (e.g. Study halls, transitioning to Graduate Studies workshops, learning communities etc.) and/or social/cultural events (e.g. Movie nights, feasts, game nights, etc.) Successful applicants are knowledgeable and familiar with UVic and IACE services, facilities and programs. The LE, NONET Campus Cousins will receive a stipend in recognition of their contribution and dedication to the program's success each term (fall and winter).

We will be returning to in person events and programming. We will continue to monitor and adhere to BC's Public Health officer's recommendations regarding masks and gathering limits.

Time commitment:

- Attend one day of training in early September, 2022
- Attend Campus Cousins meetings and check-ins with LE, NONET Student Engagement and Support Coordinator
- Commit to participating from September 7, 2022 – April 6, 2023 (not including holidays and reading breaks)
This may include the exam period—but will be decided once the group of mentors is formed and a consensus is made.

Responsibilities will include:

- Plan, coordinate and deliver an on-campus academic, social, and/or cultural event (one per semester)
- Promoting and attend all LE, NONET Campus Cousins events
- Participate in visits from local schools and community outreach
- Commit to one evening per week to be available at First Peoples House

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Chelsea McMenamie, LE, NONET Student Engagement and Support Coordinator (contact information below)

Deadline to apply:
