ANTH 483
ETHNO-GRAPHIC NOVELS

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. Andrea Walsh

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Course content will be delivered in synchronous format online via Zoom in Brightspace (Mondays and Wednesday 1-4:30 pm). Each Friday students will be assigned a visual research module with instructions to be completed by students working independently in an out of doors location. On these days there will not be a Zoom class held via Brightspace. Visual research modules will focus on drawing and photography and can be completed by students either within or outside scheduled class time. Students will choose locations for their work based on criteria for each week's module and their physical location. All provincial health order rules regarding physical and social distancing and wearing of masks must be followed by students when working out of doors on the visual modules. Prereq: 2nd year standing
