Topics:

- Introduction to the Data Management Planning framework
- Research Data Management services available at UVic
- Q & A time

The Tri-Agency Research Data Management [RDM] Policy and the Data Managements Plan [DMP] have an implementation date of Spring 2022, as outlined here. These policies are a major research culture change, and UVic Library is gearing up to support faculty and grad students. Though the framework is the same for everyone, the particular issues are going to be different between the different kinds of data (say interview tapes and transcripts vs. tables counting fish bones), thus two separate workshops.
