

Ancient burials suggestive of blood feuds

Read article

Events in November

Anthropology Graduate Colloquia – everyone welcome

- Cornett A229
- Monday, November 7th – no colloquium – reading break
- Monday, November 14th, 2016, 11:30 – 12:50, COR A229
 - Cassandre Campeau-Bouthillier, PhD Candidate, Anthropology, UVic
 - Title: TBA
- Monday, November 21st, 2016, 11:30 – 12:50, COR A229
 - Dr. Ben Raffield, Post Doctoral Fellow, SFU
 - Title: TBA
- Monday, November 28th, 2016, 11:30 – 12:50, COR A229
 - Robert Birch, PhD Candidate, Social Dimensions of Health & researcher with CARBC, UVic
 - Title: TBA
- For upcoming (and past) colloquia please see our colloquium or our Facebook page.

Anthropology Honours Program: Information Session

Thursday, November 3rd, 2016

COR A319 & 3:30 – 4:20

- Come find out what Anthropology Honours Program has to offer.
- Light refreshments served.

DR. MARGARET WILLSON: What Defines Survival? The Seawomen of Iceland

Thursday, November 3rd, 2016 @ 7:30 pm

CLE A203

- In Iceland, women have worked at sea for centuries alongside men and alone. They have commanded boats and been lauded for their abilities. But today in Iceland, this history is almost invisible. Why? Margaret Willson explores the vivid history and current situation of these women. Their experiences bring up questions about how we all create history and even our reality
- Presented by The Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies

Dr. Margaret Willson: Insights into NGO Management and Design through the Methods and Practice of Anthropology in Brazil

Friday, November 4th 2016 @ 10:30 am

Sedgewick C-Wing Room C168

- Dr. Margaret Willson (Affiliate Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology and Canadian Studies Center's Arctic Program at the University of Washington) is a cultural anthropologist whose research and projects have taken her to such diverse places as Papua New Guinea (working with PNG-born Chinese traders, and later in a remote village along the Sepik River), Inner Mongolia, the favelas of Northeast Brazil, and, most recently, Iceland. Her current research interests focus on issues relating to Arctic and Northern concerns, including fisheries, gender and small-scale communities. She is the author of Seawomen of Iceland: Survival on the Edge and Dance Lest We All Fall Down: Breaking Cycles of Poverty in Brazil and Beyond.
- Join us to share conversation and ideas with Dr. Willson about concepts related to development work in Brazil and elsewhere. How can the principles central to anthropology and other academic disciplines contribute to more effective engagements with development practices?

Coffee with... Dr. Ann Stahl

Thursday, November 17th, 2016

COR A319 & 11:30 – 12:20

- Come meet with a faculty member outside the classroom and office hour settings. Come hear the stories of how individual faculty became anthropologists: What was their route here? Where is their research taking them? What advice to they have for you? What stories do you have to tell?
- This month, please join Dr. Ann Stahl and other ANTH students in a relaxed conversation over coffee, tea and cookies. Dr. Stahl will talk about “Becoming an anthropologist...a lifelong journey of learning”

Dr. Nikolaos Papazarkadas: Beyond the Acropolis: Producing a National Archaeological Landscape in the Kingdom of Greece

Thursday, November 24th, 2016

CLE A212

- Nikolaos Papayarkadas is an historian and archaeologist of ancient Greece working in the field of Greek epigraphy, public texts inscribed in stone. He is a leader in the field of epigraphic studies, linking history and archaeology, to provide a first-hand account of ancient intellectual history.

- Lansdowne Lecture presented by the Department of Greek and Roman Studies

Final Exams

- December 2016 Final Exam Timetable is now up.
- Good luck!

I Will Not Let The Exam Result
to decide my future.
So Exams Bring it on baby..

Important dates

- Wednesday & Thursday November 9th & 10th – Fall Convocation
- Wednesday - Friday November 9th - 11th – Reading Break
- Friday November 11th – Remembrance Day (University Closed)
- For all academic year important dates click here.
- Also check out Anthropology Events calendar and Facebook page

Workstudy

- Work study applications for students are available online:
 - if you think you might be eligible, apply as soon as possible
- Work Study job in Anthropology still available.
 - ANTH 1 - cemetery data management assistant

UVic Anthropology in the news...

Dr. April Nowell and Dr. Melanie Chang article has been published in Evolutionary Anthropology

- “How to make stone soup: Is the “Paleo diet” a missed opportunity for anthropologists?”
- Read article here

Dr. Andrea Walsh: Winner of the 2016 BC Museums Association Award of Merit

- Congratulations to Dr. Andrea Walsh, Bradley Clements (MA student) and the rest of the team who worked tirelessly on the residential school art research and exhibitions.

Archaeology magazine: World Roundup

- Dr. April Nowell and their find of stone tools dating back a quarter of a million years in Jordan is mentioned here as well as a photo courtesy of Dr. Ann Stahl in a short piece on Ghana.

For more news and events please check out our News and Events website or our Facebook page.

Field Courses

Semester In Development: Study – Intern - Travel

Online info session: Thursday, November 3rd, 2016 at 5:30 PST: Click

Here To Register

- Term-long program open to undergraduate students of all disciplines. The program is based entirely overseas in Kampala, Uganda, and is unique as it combines studying and interning. While abroad, participants enroll as part-time visiting students at Makerere University, studying one day a week and earning transferable credits. The remaining four days a week have participants interning with a locally run organization in a field directly related to the student's academic field.
- Further details of the Semester in Development can be found here: <http://insightgloaleducation.com/semester-in-development/>

Miscellaneous

Medieval Studies: Call for Papers: Student Conference

- Medieval Studies and Humanities is pleased to announce our annual Interdisciplinary Student Conference will be held on the 24th and 25th of February, 2017, HHB 105
- The topic of this year's conference is: Imagining Medicine before 1660, Disciplines and Traditions of "Medicine before Modern Medicine".
- We would like to request that you put out a call for papers from both undergraduate and graduate students for this event. All entries are welcome, please see the website for more details. We welcome submissions from all disciplines and methodologies.
- <http://www.uvic.ca/humanities/medieval/research/undergradconference/index.php>

My Uvic Life

- Blog to give you a window on what it's like to be a UVic student.
- Latest topics:
 - A Student Guide to... Surviving the First Semester: Get healthy, get studious, get social!
 - Learning to Juggle School and Work
 - The Best Places to Cry on Campus: Counselling services, the bathroom, Cornett, the library...

Social Justice Studies – Uvic

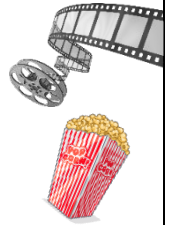

- <http://web.uvic.ca/socialjustice/>
- @UVicSJS on Twitter, UVicSJS on Facebook, UVicSJS on YouTube
- To be added to the Social Justice News & Events, please email: sjs@uvic.ca

B.O.A.S.

Undergraduate Anthropology Course Union (B.O.A.S.)

- November events planned:
 - Free Movie Night: November 16th, 2016, doors open as 5:30 pm, MAC A144 (David Lam Auditorium)
 - Indiana Jones Double Feature: Raiders of the Lost Ark & Temple of Doom
 - Come and hang out! There'll be free popcorn too! PJ's optional, but encouraged.
- If you're interested don't hesitate to get in touch with us – just send us an email at uvicboas@gmail.com
- For any upcoming events, please check out our Facebook page.

Happy Fall!

Questions or comments: anthtwo@uvic.ca