Work Study 2022-23

The work study program is funded by Student Awards and Financial Aid (SAFA) with the objective to provide additional financial assistance through on-campus part-time employment opportunities for students with documented financial need.

Applications for students are available online: if you think you might be eligible, apply as soon as possible

Details of the below ANTH workstudy job postings will be available on the work study website September 8th:

Cemetery Mapping Assistant: Dr. McGuire

- JOB DESCRIPTION: Assist with digital archive management, GIS mapping, and photo archiving materials from the Emanu-El Jewish Cemetery Project. Key tasks include converting GPS coordinates to mapping data to develop interactive GIS maps, and compiling photo and other conservation data from previous seasons. Key outcomes will include producing maps of the Emanu-El Cemetery for use by the cemetery committee and on the cemetery's website. Additionally, the maps will help target geophysical surveys for the 2023 field course, including a ground-penetrating radar survey.
- QUALIFICATIONS: Working knowledge of GIS software and experience in using GIS to construct maps is essential, including data organization, data integration, data queries, and spatial analysis. The ability to work independently and with attention to detail is important. Experience with WordPress, Google Maps, and Google Earth would be an asset. Basic understanding of archaeological field methods (e.g. ANTH 240 or equivalent) would be useful, but is not required.
- HOW TO APPLY: e-mail a short cover letter outlining your interest in the position and a CV/resume to Dr Erin McGuire, ehalstad@uvic.ca

New Library Search Platform

The UVic Libraries online catalogue is changing this summer! On June 28 our website will look a little bit different as we replace Summon with a new system called Library Search.

You'll still be able to search everything as you did in Summon, and you may not notice any changes. We'll be updating our online tutorials and videos too, so you'll have lots of help. If you have more questions or feedback, please email askus@uvic.ca.
