Faculty of Social Sciences
Graduate Curriculum Committee
Terms of Reference

This Committee is responsible for reviewing all graduate curriculum changes in Social Sciences academic units that involve modification to courses or programs. It meets twice annually to review changes for two calendar cycles (once in September and once in December), and from time to time change proposals will be decided upon by e-mail ballot.