Teaching Modalities and Teaching Expectations: This course is face to face and all exams are held in person.

Course Description

Countries differ widely in terms of their per-capita income and growth performance. Some countries have high per-capita income and others low. This course will focus on analyzing and understanding the growth process and major factors hindering it. In particular, it will examine the role of investment, human capital, technology diffusion, R & D activities and government policies in the growth process. Students will be introduced to variety of growth models and empirical methods used to analyze these issues. Students are expected to be familiar with basic calculus (derivatives and integrals) and statistical and econometric methods.

Prerequisites: Complete ECON 204 - Intermediate Macroeconomics and one of the following ECON 246 - Statistical Inference or STAT 261 - Introduction to Probability and Statistics II.

Learning Outcomes

Students will learn to:

- Characterize growth process using cross-country time-series data.
- Use regression methods to test the convergence process and implications of growth models (growth regressions).
- Use various types of growth models to analyze the growth process.
- Analyze the role of human capital, R & D activities and technology diffusion in the growth process.
- Examine the role of government policies in the growth process.

Recommended Textbook and Other Material:

Introduction to Economic Growth, C. I. Jones and D. Vollrath, Norton. This is a standard under-graduate text-book for economic growth. The 4th edition (2024) is the latest edition of the book, but you can use the 3rd edition as well.

Grading :

Grading will be based on a take-home assignment, three in-class exercises, one mid-term examination and a final examination. Weights: Take-Home Assignment– 20%, In-Class Exercises– 15%, Mid-Term Exam– 25% and Final Examination – 40%.

Take-Home Assignment: Due Date: Friday, 14th August in class. The assignment must be submitted in class as a hard copy. It must be typed and properly stapled. Email submissions will not be accepted. I will post this assignment on Brightspace at least three weeks before the due date. Late submissions will not be marked.

Due Dates for Examinations :

Mid-Term Examination : 1 Hour, 2:30-3:30, Wednesday, 5th August, in class. Regular class will take place following 10 minute break after the examination.

Final Examination: Duration: 90 minutes, 21st August (last day of class). The final examination will be held in class during regular class hours (2:30-4:00). It will be cumulative and will be based on all the material covered in the course.

In-Class Exercises: In-class exercises must be done in class on the due dates given below. Students will get 30 minutes to complete these exercises towards the end of class. These exercises will be set such that they can normally be done within 20 minutes so that every student has sufficient time to answer them. I will post a set of questions on Brightspace one week in advance on which in-class exercises will be based. This will allow students ample time to prepare for these questions. Students will be asked to answer a sub-set of these questions in class. Grades for in-class exercises will be based on the best 2 out of 3. Thus the best three in-class exercises will have weight of 7.50% each.

Due Dates:

1st in-class exercise: Tuesday, 21st July

2nd in-class exercise: Friday, 31st July

3rd in-class exercise: Tuesday, 18th August

Important Remarks

1. Examinations and in-class exercises must be written in ink.
2. In order to pass this course students must attempt both mid-term and final examinations.
3. If you miss the take-home assignment or any in-class exercises no make-up assignment/exercises will be given.
4. The use of AI is not permitted for doing take-home assignment. Should you violate this rule, you will have violated UVic's Policy on Academic Integrity available at https://www.uvic.ca/calendar/future/undergrad/index.php#/policy/Sk_0xsM_V and a complaint against you under this policy will be filed accordingly.
5. The assignment and in-class exercises will help you in learning the subject and prepare for examinations. However, they are not sufficient to do well in examinations and have a good grasp of the course material. Students are expected to go through all the reading material and regularly attend the lectures.

Some Important Comments

1. Grade Concerns: Students who have questions or concerns regarding their grade should discuss with me during office hours. All concerns must be brought to my attention no later than one week after the graded material was returned. After one week, any assigned grade is final.
2. Failed Exams: Failed exams cannot be retaken and no extra work can be done to improve your grade.
3. Make-Up Mid-Term Exam: If a student misses midterm examinations due to health reasons, family afflictions or other unforeseen circumstances, it must write the make-up mid-term examinations. The time and place of make-up mid-term examination will be announced later. A student wishing to write a make-up mid-term examination must fill and submit the in-course concession form and email it to me at kumara@uvic.ca. The in-course concession form is available at <https://www.uvic.ca/socialsciences/economics/undergraduate/undergraduate-courses/forms/index.php>.

Only those students whose requests have been approved by me will be able to write the make-up exam.

4. Missed Make-Up and Final Exams: In the event that you miss the make-up examination or final examination due to illness or family affliction or other unforeseen circumstances, please consult the Academic Concessions portion of the Registrar's website to determine whether you qualify for a late drop or a withdrawal under extenuating circumstances.

5. Examination Dates Conflict: It is your duty to ensure that examination dates of this course do not clash with your other examinations.

6. Plagiarism and Cheating: Students must abide by UVic academic regulations and observe standards of scholarly integrity (no plagiarism or cheating). Students who are found to have engaged in unethical academic behavior are subject to penalty by the University. The web-site has an excellent description of plagiarism which you may wish to consult https://www.uvic.ca/calendar/future/undergrad/index.php#/policy/Sk_0xsM_V.

7. The university reserves the right to use a plagiarism software to detect violations of academic integrity.

8. Policy on Inclusivity and Diversity: The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing and protecting a positive and safe learning and working environment for all its members.

9. Travel Plans: Students are advised not to make travel plans until after the examination timetable has been finalized. Students who wish to finalize their travel plans at an earlier date should book flights that depart after the end of the examination period (see the University Calendar). There will be no special accommodation if travel plans conflict with the examination.

10. Letter Grading: Numerical score (%) equivalencies used in the Department are as follows:

A+ $\geq$ 90%	B+ 77-79%	C+ 65-69%	F < 50%
A 85-89%	B 73-76%	C 60-64%
A- 80-84%	B- 70-72%	D 50-59%

For the grading scale and expectations, please see summary of grading.

11. DEF Grade: Students who have not completed all course requirements at the time of grade submission are advised to obtain a Request for Academic Concession form for a DEF grade.

12. Course Policies: The University and the Departmental course policies can be found at

<https://www.uvic.ca/socialsciences/economics/undergraduate/undergraduate-courses/course-policies/index.php>

This document summarizes departmental and university policies on academic concessions, academic integrity (plagiarism and cheating), attendance, grading, inclusivity and diversity, late adds, late assignments, repeating courses, review of an assigned grade, students with a disability, term assignments and debarment from exams, end-of-term travel plans, waitlists, and sexualized violence prevention and response.

13. E-Mails: Emails should be limited to critical matters, such as inability to attend class, an exam, or prolonged illness, and should include the course name and number in the subject line. Questions on course material should be asked during classes or office hours. The standard format for writing a letter must be used. This means it should start off with a salutation (e.g. Dear) include full sentences and conclude with a signature that includes your name (e.g. Sincerely, your full name) and student number (V#). Text message lingo should not be used.

14. It is the responsibility of students to check their registration status and keep it up to date.

15. Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response: UVIC takes sexualized violence seriously, and has raised the bar for what is considered acceptable behaviour. Students are encouraged to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting www.uvic.ca/svp . If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Contact svpcordinator@uvic.ca.

16. From time to time there will be other announcements and they will be posted on BRIGHTSPACE. It is the responsibility of students to visit BRIGHTSPACE regularly.

Important Note: I value your feedback on this course. Towards the end of term you will have the opportunity to complete a confidential course experience survey (CES) regarding your learning experience. The survey is vital to providing feedback to me regarding the course and my teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. When it is time for you to complete the survey, you will receive an email inviting you to do so. If you do not receive an email invitation, you can go directly to <http://ces.uvic.ca>. You will need to use your UVic NetLink ID to access the survey, which can be done on your laptop, tablet or mobile device. I will remind you nearer the time, but please be thinking about this important activity, especially the following three questions, during the course.

1. What strengths did your instructor demonstrate that helped you learn in this course?
2. Please provide specific suggestions as to how the instructor could have helped you learn more effectively.
3. Please provide specific suggestions as to how this course could be improved.
