COURSE DESCRIPTION

Urban Mobility: Cities and Transportation (Geog 491) provides a unique applied learning experience for students to explore and creatively engage with a range of urban transportation issues in Canada and in the Victoria area specifically. Public transit, active transportation, road safety, bicycle planning and design and related urban mobility innovations will be addressed in the planning, policy and geographic of Victoria & the Capital Region, with comparative looks at cities around the world. The course will feature several guest presentations from local area city planners, professionals and community leaders. Special presentations and discussion groups as well as walk and bicycle tours will also take place during class or designated times.

KEY THEMES: Cities in the 20th & 21st century; urban transportation & development; transit planning and design; active transportation; walkable cities and urban design; bicycle planning and infrastructure

REQUIRED TEXT(S)

Jeff Speck – Walkable City Rules: 101 Steps to Making Better Places (avail. thru UVic Library)

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course successful students will be able to clearly articulate and explain:

1. The critical role of cities and their transportation networks in human history and civilization, and the more recent evolution of the 20th century modern city.
2. Multiple perspectives on urban planning, multi-modal transportation and active transportation in the context of urban and built environments – and the benefits and challenges of retrofitting transportation systems

3. The complexities of developing and implementing city planning initiatives and the challenges, barriers, politics, and strategies involved
4. Rationale for & assessment/analysis of recent or ongoing active transportation investments in City of Victoria, District of Saanich, UVic and other jurisdictions
5. The extent to which active transport and related mobility investments support broader urban and regional sustainability efforts, e.g climate change, road safety
6. The importance of qualitative and quantitative data and methods, including critical field or on-site observations to support and assess urban planning initiatives.

EVALUATION

1. Student Participation & Reading Quiz (20%)
2. Assignment #1 – Research Paper /OR/ Urban Field Diary (30%)
3. Assignment #2 – Street or Site Analysis and Design /OR/ Data Research project (30%)
4. Assignment #3 – In-Class Presentation - group or individual (20%)

GRADING SYSTEM

As per the Academic Calendar:

Grade	Grade point value	Grade scale	Description
A+	9	90-100%	Exceptional, outstanding and excellent performance. Normally achieved by a minority of students. These grades indicate a student who is self-initiating, exceeds expectation and has an insightful grasp of the subject matter.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

It is every student's responsibility to be aware of the university's policies on academic integrity, including policies on cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized use of an editor, multiple submission, and aiding others to cheat.

Policy on Academic Integrity: web.uvic.ca/calendar/undergrad/info/regulations/academic-integrity.html

If you have any questions or doubts, talk to me, your course instructor. For more information, see uvic.ca/learningandteaching/cac/index.php.

ACCESSIBILITY

Students with diverse learning styles and needs are welcome in this course. In particular, if you have a documented disability or health consideration that may require accommodations, please feel free to approach me and/or the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) as soon as possible (uvic.ca/services/cal/). The CAL staff is available by appointment to assess specific needs, provide referrals, and arrange appropriate accommodations. The sooner you let us know your needs, the quicker we can assist you in achieving your learning goals in this course.

POSITIVITY AND SAFETY

The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing and protecting a positive and safe learning and working environment for all its members.

SEXUALIZED VIOLENCE PREVENTION AND RESPONSE AT UVIC

UVic takes sexualized violence seriously, and has raised the bar for what is considered acceptable behaviour. We encourage students to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting uvic.ca/svp. If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Whether or not you have been directly impacted, if you want to take part in the important prevention work taking place on campus, you can also reach out:

RESOURCES FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The University of Victoria offers a number of resources to support international students as they pursue their studies. UVic's International Centre for Students is the primary office supporting international students on campus at the university-wide level and provides various supportive program through the UVic Global Community Initiative, including a Mentorship Program and Conversation Partner Program. For academic advising-related questions, students in the Geography Department are also encouraged to meet with the Geography Undergraduate Advisor (geogadvising@uvic.ca) as well as an academic advisor in the Academic Advising Centre early in their studies to help map out a plan to declare a major and complete university program requirements. Other resources include the Centre for Academic Communication and the Math and Stats Assistance Centre. International students are also encouraged to contact the International Student Liaison in Geography (Prof. CindyAnn Rose-Redwood, cindyann@uvic.ca), who can assist in making connections with other international and domestic students in the Geography Department and share opportunities for getting involved in departmental activities more broadly.

COURSE EXPERIENCE SURVEY (CES)

I value your feedback on this course. Towards the end of term, as in all other courses at UVic, you will have the opportunity to complete an anonymous survey regarding your learning experience (CES). The survey is vital to providing feedback to me regarding the course and my teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. The survey is accessed online and can be done on your laptop, tablet, or mobile device. I will remind you and provide you with more detailed information nearer the time but please be thinking about this important activity during the course.
