Refund Policy for Field Schools

Note that the refund policy applies equally to:

- Students who have accepted a place in the Field School and decide not to go
- students who begin participation in the Field School and decide to return home early

Deposit: Field school applications must be accompanied by a $200 deposit.

- If an applicant is not accepted into the Field School, the deposit will be returned in its entirety. If an applicant is offered a place in the Field School and declines the offer, the deposit will be returned in its entirety.

Otherwise, the deposit is not refundable.

Extenuating circumstances would allow for a refund of field course fees. These extenuating circumstances:

- Do include: proof of a personal, family, or medical emergency submitted with a written request for the refund including supporting documentation from appropriate professionals (such as doctors and/or counselors).
- Do not include: inability to raise sufficient funds by the payment deadline, or early return due to culture shock, homesickness, legal or academic discipline, criminal activity, or other external events in the outside community that are beyond the control of the UVic Field School.

Once additional payments have been made, and before the Field School participants depart, these payments will be returned upon withdrawal for valid reasons. Payments will be returned less any costs that have been paid for accommodation or other expenses for the Field School. Field school cancellation would result in a full refund.

Photographic Permissions

I understand that while I am on this field school, photographs or video may be taken of me (group and/or individual). These photos may be used by the University of Victoria and/or the Department of Geography and/or the Oneida Nation as promotional material. I understand that if I do not wish photographs of myself to be used in this manner, it is my responsibility to let the Field School Instructor know.

General Consent/ Permission

I _____ (name of applicant) understand that the Oneida Field School (GEOG 391) program offered by the Department of Geography at the University of Victoria may expose participants to elements of risk. I also acknowledge that accidents may occur while participating in the program and can be a result of the nature of the activity and can occur without fault on either the part of the participant or the University of Victoria. I am aware that the Geography Department will take necessary and appropriate safety precautions and will attempt to minimize any associated risks. Accidents, however, may cause loss of personal property, injury or even death. As a registered participant, I accept the risk of an accident occurring.

Examples of the types of hazards to which I may be exposed while participating include, but are not limited to:

- TERRAIN: any manner of injury resulting from falls on or from steep, slippery, or uneven terrains. Injury or death may be caused by, but not limited to, making contact with rocks, trees, obstructions and other participants, visible or non-visible.
- WEATHER: injury or illness resulting from exposure to heat, cold, sunlight, or winds.
- ANIMALS: Injury resulting from interaction with wildlife: coyotes, bears, wolves, cougars, snakes, bees, etc.
- HEALTH RISKS: [It is highly recommended that you ensure you have current tetanus vaccination]. I am responsible for ensuring that I take serious precautions to avoid health problems. For instance, I will ensure that I am adequately hydrated with safe water. In case I need to consult a doctor and/or dentist, I understand that I may have to pay the fees associated with such a visit i.e., boat and vehicle transportation.
- HAZARDS OF TRAVEL: injury resulting from boat transport, hiking over unstable logs and rocks, etc.
- OTHER HAZARDS: those not explicitly identified above. For instance, sexual harassment and other forms of harassment will not be tolerated.

Special policy on COVID designed to keep Indigenous partners and students safe I also acknowledge I will be asked to submit a voluntary declaration of up-to-date COVID vaccination status (by June 01, 2023), and understand that my ability to interact with Indigenous Knowledge Holders will be restricted without such declaration or if I am not up-to-date (as defined by the Provincial Health Officer of BC) on COVID vaccination. I also acknowledge that I will be encouraged to participate in multiple days of rapid antigen testing prior to, and during, the field school experience, and that my ability to take the course and/or interact with Indigenous Knowledge Holders and other students will be restricted or lost should I declare a positive test result. Finally, I will read and follow the broader COVID policy document specifically tailored to this field course.
