

Volume 4 Okanagan Water Decisions

Timothy O'Riordan and Jonathan O'Riordan

The first of the two sections in this volume is concerned with decision making and environmental quality, while the second focuses on the evaluation process in comprehensive river basin planning. Together the two sections give a detailed appraisal of the problems of water quantity and quality in the Okanagan and illustrate an innovative federal-provincial approach to water resource management.

first printed: 1972

reprinted: 1974

price: $2.00