POLI 379
Issues in European Politics: Economic Governance in the EU: From Financial Crisis to Corona Virus

Instructor:
Dr. Amy Verdun (Fall 2020)

Course description:
This course examines the politics of economic governance in the European Union (EU). Embedded in history and theory it examines the difficulty of economic policy coordination among diverse EU member states that face numerous trials and tribulations – with particular focus on the past three decades up until the challenges posed by the current Corona virus crisis.

Course outcomes/objectives:
• Explore European economic institutions

Topics may include:
Brexit, Corona crisis, economic coordination among European states,

Course delivery: In the Fall 2020 term, this course will be delivered synchronously.

This online summary is only intended to give an overall sense of the course. Detailed course outlines will be made available for all registered students on the first day of class. Only those outlines are to be considered official.