Smith, M. G. (2017). Speaking our truth: A journey of reconciliation. Orca Book Publishers.

*Note: the text is available electronically through the UVic library.

Course Description

This course is an introduction to the impact of colonization on Indigenous People of Canada, cultural identity, and promotion of reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples. A specific goal of this course is to foster an understanding of reconciliation promotion. An all-encompassing review of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit culture and history will not be addressed in this course. Students will be introduced to key historical examples of colonization that illustrate the impact that colonization has had on Indigenous Peoples past and/or current ways of life.

An important aim of this course is to provide space for dialoguing about colonization, Indigenous presence, and methods of reconciliation promotion. Students will dialogue and reflect on these topics through in-class discussion, individual and group presentations, and written assignments.

In general, half of each class will be devoted to didactic learning, discussions of readings, guest lecturer presentations, and/or field trips. The remaining portion of each class will focus on small and large group discussions which will involve exercises and peer-based instruction. It is important that students come to class prepared to actively participate in discussions and exercises.

Intended Learning Outcomes

A. When asked throughout the course, you will provide key historical examples of colonization that illustrate the impact that colonization has had on Indigenous Peoples past and/or current ways of life.

B. Throughout the course in small and large group discussions, you will describe elements of your own cultural identity and how it impacts your world view.

C. When asked throughout the course, you will successfully provide examples of key concepts related to decolonization with each example exemplifying ways of reconciliation promotion with Indigenous Peoples.

Evaluation

Each assignment is given an evaluative mark of:
Exceeds Expectation	Met Expectation	Did Not Meet Expectation
Performance demonstrates an understanding above the expected levels and demonstrates a clear understanding of all aspects of the assignment.	Performance demonstrates an understanding of the expected levels and demonstrates an understanding of most aspects of the assignment.	Performance does not demonstrate an understanding of the expected levels and does not demonstrate a clear understanding of salient aspects of the assignment.

To pass the course, all assignments must be completed, and all assignments must have received a minimum of “met expectation” evaluation. If you receive a “did not meet expectation” mark, you will be expected to meet with the instructor to develop a remediation strategy.

Assignment:	Due Date:

♦ Reconciliation Project must be completed in order to pass the course.

Failure to complete one or more of these elements will result in a grade of “N” regardless of the cumulative percentage of all other elements of the course. N is a failing grade and factors into GPA as a value of 0.

In accordance with the University’s policy on academic concessions, “A student who completes all course requirements is not eligible for an academic concession”. Consequently, students can only request deferrals for the completion of required course components and not for non-essential course components.

Please review the University of Victoria academic important dates for a list of important course dates (Add/Drop): <https://www.uvic.ca/calendar/dates/>

The University of Victoria is committed to creating a learning experience that is as accessible as possible. If you are registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning and anticipate or experience any barriers to learning in this course, please feel welcome to discuss your concerns with me. If you are a student with a disability or chronic health condition, you can meet with a CAL advisor to discuss access and accommodations.

In this course, most assignments are time sensitive for two reasons: (1) often the next assignment builds on the previous one so it needs to be completed for students to move forward and (2) some assignments involve other students. For these reasons, it is typically not possible to provide extensions to assignments. As a result, it is expected that all students will submit their assignments at the required time.

Description of Assignments

Self-Care Presentation:

You are to prepare and present in class a 2-slide PowerPoint presentation that describes how you will engage in and monitor your ability to engage in self-care. The first slide will describe your method of self-care. The second slide will describe how you plan to monitor your progress and adjust (i.e., modify or change your plan of action) if needed.

Reconciliation Project Planning:

Working in quads, students will create a project plan (i.e., 1-2 pages double-spaced), for their final group assignment (i.e., Reconciliation Project Class Presentation).

Create a timeline that identifies what your topic will be, when you will work on each stage of your project, as well as specific items in your project plan. Describe your topic & method for monitoring implementation of your project plan (e.g., check- list, journaling, verbal check-in with someone) and a remediation strategy if you fall off track. Note, if you exceed two pages only the first two pages will be marked.

Example project plan outline:

- Identify group project topic (i.e., specific reconciliation topic) in week one,
- Completed a draft of your reconciliation activity (i.e., goal, activity, progress evaluation plan) in week two,
- Collect evidence supporting your knowledge of colonization and your own cultural identities in week three,
 - Collect examples of colonization
 - Discuss with group members how your own cultural identities have influenced your world views
- Outline the details of your reconciliation activity that exemplifies reconciliation promotion with Indigenous Peoples in week four,
- Complete a draft copy of your reconciliation project and have each group member review and provide feedback in week five,
- Revise the visual representation of your presentation's structure to include group members' feedback in week six.

Peer-Based Instruction Presentation:

Presentation to Partner: Read the article assigned to you and prepare to teach a classmate that article. Prepare a PowerPoint presentation for your classmate that includes: intended learning outcome, post- assessment, and the instructional strategies you will be using to teach your classmate. Once we meet during this synchronous virtual class, you will be paired off into break out rooms. You will have 15 minutes to teach your classmate your article. After 15 minutes, your colleague will teach you for 15 minutes about their article. This portion of your grade will be assigned by your partner based off their feedback of your presentation.

Group A: read and prepare a presentation on the Gone (2020) article;

Group B: read and prepare a presentation on the Tuck, E., & Yang, K. W. (2012) article.

Full article names are available in the reading list below.

Feedback on Partner's Presentation: Outside of class, you will fill out a 1-page feedback report for your partner, based on their presentation. Complete the 1-page “feedback form” using point form. Describe the three most important aspects (concepts, issues, factual information) of your partner’s presentation, any confusing aspects of the presentation, and strengths of your partner’s presentation. Assign a mark out of 10 for your partner’s presentation.

Self-Reflection Paper:

Based on Monique Gray Smith’s book, virtual field-trip, and other course material; you are to prepare a brief (2-pages double-spaced) reflection paper that focuses on your own self-reflection of colonization, Indigenous presence, and methods of reconciliation promotion. Within this paper, you are to identify areas of knowledge growth as well as areas for improvement. You are to provide at least two specific goals (i.e., provide examples of how you will monitor, track, and evaluate your progress) that will support your learning in “areas for improvement”. Please note, if you exceed two pages only the first two pages of your paper will be marked.

Reconciliation Project Class Presentation & Synopsis:

Working in quads, students will make a class presentation on an activity/method of reconciliation promotion.

Student will meet with the instructor, in advance of their presentation, during a “Class Presentation Pair Feedback Session” to discuss their reconciliation promotion activity topic. To present in-class, instructor review and approval of activity topic is required.

The overall length of the presentation is approximately 15 minutes: including a 10-minute presentation of activity and facilitation of a 5-minute discussion. Each team will assign a relevant reading to the class a week before their presentation and will submit a 3-page double-spaced synopsis of their presentation to distribute to the class (point form is preferred). You may include additional handouts in an appendix (note: the appendix and references/reading list pages are not part of the 3-page limit).

Your 15-minute PowerPoint presentation will outline your reconciliation project. The PowerPoint (~10-13 slides total) should include: (a) examples of colonization to illustrate the impact that colonization has had on Indigenous Peoples past and/or current ways of life (~2-3 slides); (b) examples of how your own cultural identities (i.e., cultural characteristics, history, values, beliefs, and behaviors of your ethnic and/or cultural group) has influenced your world view (~2-4 slides); (c) development of a specific reconciliation activity (i.e., goal, activity, progress evaluation plan) that exemplifies reconciliation promotion with Indigenous Peoples (~4 slides); and (d) questions to facilitation discussion on your reconciliation activity/method (~2 slide). Please note, to accommodate all presenting groups, try not to exceed 15 minutes.

Sign-up for a presentation date: Group 1: June 23rd (4 groups) Group 2: June 24th (3 groups).

Class Preparation & Participation:

Your class participation and preparation grade will be assigned based on my appraisal of several factors:

- Your ability to articulate & synthesize key constructs and themes in the readings;
- The overall quality and thoughtfulness of the issues and questions raised in class;
- Your active participation, involvement, and contributions to weekly class sessions

All assignments are due at the beginning of class and should follow APA format guidelines unless otherwise specified (e.g., point-form preferred).

Policy on Absences

It is essential that you attend all classes and that you arrive on time for class as we will be covering a lot of important material in each session. If missing a class is unavoidable, or if you cannot complete an assignment due to serious illness, accident, or family affliction, please contact me by email as soon as possible in order to make alternative arrangements. It is your responsibility to obtain any missed notes or assignments from your classmates. Missing more than one 110-minute class may jeopardize your successful completion of this class. All assignments must be successfully completed in order to pass this class. An inquisitive, collegial, and cooperative attitude is encouraged and valued in this class. If you have any questions or suggestions to improve your learning experience please approach me at any time.

Respect for Diversity Statement from Instructor

It is my intent that students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength and benefit. It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender, sexuality, disability, age, socio-economic status, ethnicity, race, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally or for other students or student groups. In addition, if any of our class meetings conflict with your religious and/or cultural events, please let me know so that we can make alternative assignment submission arrangements.

UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA

Department of Psychology Important Course Policy Information Summer Session 2026

Accessible Learning

The University of Victoria is committed to creating a learning experience that is as accessible as possible. If you are registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning and anticipate or experience any barriers to learning in this course, please feel welcome to discuss your concerns with me. If you are a student with a disability or chronic health condition, you can meet with a CAL advisor to discuss access and accommodations.

Attendance and Absences

Attendance is important. Students who do not attend their classes during the first two weeks (and do not inform the instructor of valid circumstances that prevent their attendance) may be dropped from both class registration and the waitlist.

Students are expected to attend all classes in which they are enrolled. Students may be assigned a final grade of N or debarred from writing final examinations if they fail to satisfy a minimum attendance requirement set by the instructor for lectures, laboratories, online course discussions or learning activities, tutorials, or other learning activities set out in the course outline.

Medical documentation for short-term absences is not required (approved by Senate). Students who cannot attend due to illness are asked to notify their instructors immediately. If illness, accident, or family affliction causes a student to miss the final exam or to fail to complete any required assignment/assessment by the end of the term students are required to submit a request for academic concession (see below).

Children and Pets

If you need to bring your children or pet to class, please do not hesitate to do so. It is understood that sometimes this is necessary due to care circumstances. However, please aim to have minimal class disturbance so that student learning is not impacted.

Class Recording and Auto-Captioning Statement

The instructor may record class sessions and those recordings may be made available to all students in the class via Brightspace. If you have questions or concerns regarding class recording and privacy, please contact privacyinfo@uvic.ca

Auto-generated captioning may be enabled in this course. Auto-captioning is highly error-prone, especially for specialized terminology and proper names. Students are asked to refer to the audio feed for clarification of any errors. If you find captioning errors that are offensive, please contact your instructor and/or teaching assistant so that they are aware. If you require captions as part of an academic accommodation, please contact CAL.

Commitment to Inclusivity, Diversity, and Respectful Environments in the Classroom and Online

The University of Victoria is committed to providing a positive and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members. All members of the university community have the right to this experience and the responsibility to help create such an environment. The University will not tolerate racism, sexualized violence, or any form of discrimination, bullying, or harassment.

Please be advised that, by logging into UVic's learning systems or interacting with online resources and course-related communication platforms, you are engaging in a University activity.

All interactions within this environment are subject to the university expectations and policies. Any concerns about student conduct may be reviewed and responded to in accordance with the appropriate university policy.

To report concerns about online student conduct: onlineconduct@uvic.ca

Copyright

All course content and materials are made available by instructors for educational purposes and for the exclusive use of students registered in their class¹. The material is protected under copyright law, even if not marked with ©. Any further use or distribution of materials to others requires the written permission of the instructor, except under fair dealing or another exception in the Copyright Act. Violations may result in disciplinary action under the Resolution of Non-Academic Misconduct Allegations policy \(AC1300\) or the Academic Integrity Policy, whichever is more appropriate for the situation.

Student Experience of Learning (SEL) Survey

I value your feedback on this course. Toward the end of term, you will have the opportunity to complete a confidential Student Experience of Learning (SEL) survey regarding your learning experience. The survey is vital to providing feedback to the instructor regarding the course and their teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. When it is time for you to complete the survey, you will receive an email inviting you to do so. If you do not receive an email invitation, you can go directly to <http://sel.uvic.ca>. You will need to use your UVic NetLink ID to access the survey, which can be done on your laptop, tablet or mobile device. You will be reminded nearer the time, but please be thinking about this important activity, especially the following three questions, during the course.

1. What strengths did your instructor demonstrate that helped you learn in this course?
2. Please provide specific suggestions as to how the instructor could have helped you learn more effectively.
3. Please provide specific suggestions as to how this course could be improved.

Disclaimer

The schedule, policies, procedures, and assignments in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.

Grading

In classes that are based on a percentage grading scheme, the following Undergraduate Grading Scale is used

Grade	A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	D	F
Percentage	90-100	85-89	80-84	77-79	73-76	70-72	65-69	60-64	51-59	< 50
GP Value	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0

Rounding is only applied to the final grade and is rounded up at the 0.5% level (e.g., 84.49% is rounded to 84% and 84.50% is rounded to 85%).

Medical Documentation for absences

No medical documentation for short-term absences is required (Approved by Senate).

If you are seeking a Withdrawal Extenuating Circumstances or an Aegrotat grade, medical documentation may be required if relevant.

Ombudsperson and Academic Concerns

From the course calendar...

Depending on the nature of the academic matter of concern to the student, the order in which the student should normally try to resolve the matter is: first, the course instructor; second, the Chair of the department; third, the Dean of the faculty; and finally, the Senate.

If you are having an academic concern or problem that cannot be resolved with your instructor or the Department Associate Chair, you may wish to consult with the Office of the Ombudsperson (<https://uvicombudsperson.ca>). Current contact information for the office can be found here <https://uvicombudsperson.ca/contact/>.

Policy on Academic Integrity including Plagiarism and Cheating

The Department of Psychology fully endorses and intends to enforce rigorously the Senate Policy on Academic Integrity. It is of utmost importance that students who do their work honestly be protected from those who do not. Because this policy is in place to ensure that students carry out and benefit from the learning activities assigned in each course, it is expected that students will cooperate in its implementation.

The offences defined by the policy can be summarized briefly as follows:

1. Plagiarism. You must make sure that the work you submit is your work and not someone else's. There are proper procedures for citing the works of others. The student is responsible for being aware of and using these procedures.
2. Unauthorized Use of an Editor. The use of an editor is prohibited unless the instructor grants explicit written authorization.
3. Multiple Submission. Only under exceptional circumstances may a work submitted to fulfill an academic requirement be used to satisfy another similar requirement. The student is responsible for clarifying this with the instructor(s) involved.
4. Falsifying Materials Subject to Academic Evaluation. This includes falsification of data, use of commercially prepared essays, using information from the Internet without proper citation, citing sources from which material is not actually obtained, etc.
5. Cheating on Assignments, Tests, and Examinations. You may not copy the work of others in or out of class; you may not give your work to others for the purpose of copying; you may not use unauthorized material or equipment during examinations or tests; and you may not impersonate or allow yourself to be impersonated by another at an examination. The Department of Psychology has a policy of not making old examinations available for study purposes. Therefore, use of old exams without the express written permission of the instructor constitutes cheating by the user, and abetting of cheating by the person who provided the exam.
6. Aiding Others to Cheat. It is a violation to help others or attempt to help others to engage in any of the conduct described above.

The use of a generative artificial intelligence (AI) is strictly prohibited in any submitted work (unless expressly endorsed by the instructor as part of an assignment).

Instructors are expected to make every effort to prevent cheating and plagiarism. This may include the assignment of seating for examinations, asking students to move during examinations, requests to see student identification cards, and other measures as appropriate. Instructors also have available to them a variety of tools and procedures to check for Internet and electronic media-based cheating. In instances of suspected or actual plagiarism or cheating, instructors, following prescribed procedures, are authorized to take steps consistent with the degree of the offence. These measures will range from a zero on the test or assignment or a failing grade for the course, probation within a program to temporary or even permanent suspension from the University.

Rights of Appeal are described in the Policy on Academic Integrity in the University calendar Spring 2025.

For more information see the UVic Calendar.

Registration Status

Students are responsible for verifying their registration status. Registration status may be verified using My Page, View Schedule. Course adds and drops will not be processed after the deadlines set out in the current UVic Calendar.

Students who do not attend classes must not assume that they have been dropped from a course by an academic unit or an instructor. Courses that are not formally dropped will be given a failing grade, students may be required to withdraw and will be required to pay the tuition fee for the course.

Request for Academic Concessions

Students can apply for academic concessions if their course requirements are affected by (i) unexpected and/or unavoidable circumstances (e.g., illness, family affliction, etc.), or (ii) conflicting responsibilities (e.g., service in the armed forces or first responder, representing the university).

- Request an in-course extension
If you require more time to complete a course requirement or miss a test or midterm exam, then you will need to complete the “In-Course Extension Form” and submit it directly to your course instructor. All course requirements must be completed prior to the submission of final grades.
- What to do if you miss the final exam scheduled during the formal exam period
Apply at Records Services for a “Request for Academic Concession”, normally within 10 working days of the date of the exam. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation (for example, a deferred exam). Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student’s academic record.
- What to do if you require additional time to complete course requirements beyond the normal term.
Apply at Records Services for a “Request for Academic Concession”, normally within 10 working days of the end of the course. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation. Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student’s academic record if the missing work has been deemed required. Note, only required course components may be deferred.

Research Participation Opportunities with the Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology offers multiple opportunities to participate in research studies over the year. Students are encouraged to learn more about the field of psychology by volunteering in these studies. Information about studies can often be found posted on notice boards around the Department as well as through our Participant Pool webpage at <https://www.uvic.ca/socialsciences/psychology/research/participants/>.

Student Code of Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct explains how University policies regarding student behaviour are interpreted and applied within the Faculties of Humanities, Science and Social Sciences.

Student Support Services

Learn Anywhere is the student support portal for a full range of student academic and support services. Services include: Centre for Academic Communication, Math & Stats Assistance Centre, Counselling Services, Health Services, Library, Ombudsperson, and Computer Help Desk

This classroom is a trans-inclusive space

Please indicate if you have a preferred name and pronoun that you'd like to be used in the classroom. Please e-mail your instructor or your TA if you would like to discuss the climate of this classroom for trans students. Gender neutral bathrooms are available at UVic.

University of Victoria Students' Society (UVSS)

The UVSS is a social justice based non-profit run by students, for students and is entirely separate from UVic. As an undergrad student, you are already a member! We work on issues affecting students such as affordability, public transit, sexualized violence, sustainability, student employment, and much more. We fund clubs and course unions, and have several advocacy groups. We also have a Food Bank and Free Store, a Peer Support Centre, and run your health and dental plan. We are here to support you, so please reach out to us at uvss.ca!

Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response at UVic

UVic takes sexualized violence seriously, and has raised the bar for what is considered acceptable behaviour. We encourage students to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting www.uvic.ca/svp. If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Whether or not you have been directly impacted, if you want to take part in the important prevention work taking place on campus, you can also reach out:

Where: Office of Equity and Human Rights, Sedgewick Building, Room C133

Phone: 250 721 8021

Email: eqhr01@uvic.ca

BE WELL

A note to remind you to take care of yourself. Do your best to maintain a healthy lifestyle this semester by eating well, exercising, getting enough sleep and taking some time to relax. This will help you achieve your goals and cope with stress. All of us benefit from support during times of struggle. You are not alone.

Social Life, Friends, & Community at UVic:

Having a social network is an extremely important foundation for positive mental health. There are lots of benefits to joining clubs, course unions, intramurals and teams on campus.

Counselling Services:

The Student Wellness Centre can help you make the most of your university experience. They offer free professional, confidential, inclusive support to currently registered UVic students. <https://www.uvic.ca/student-wellness/contacts/student-wellness-team/index.php#ipn-counsellors>

Health Services:

The Student Wellness Centre also provides a full service primary health clinic for students. <https://www.uvic.ca/student-wellness/contacts/student-wellness-team/index.php#ipn-physicians>

Centre for Accessible Learning:

The CAL staff are available by appointment to assess specific needs, provide referrals and arrange appropriate accommodations <https://www.uvic.ca/accessible-learning/index.php>. The sooner you let us know your needs, the quicker we can assist you in achieving your learning goals in this course.

Elders' Voices:

The Office of Indigenous Academic and Community Engagement (IACE) has the privilege of assembling a group of Elders from local communities to guide students, staff, faculty and administration in Indigenous ways of knowing and being. www.uvic.ca/services/indigenous/students/programming/elders/

Mental Health Supports and Services:

Mental health supports and services are available to students from all areas of the UVic community: <https://www.uvic.ca/student-wellness/wellness-resources/mental-health/>
