WELCOME TO PSYCHOLOGY 100B

We acknowledge with respect the ləkʷəŋən peoples on whose traditional territory the university stands, and the Songhees, Esquimalt, and WSÁNEC peoples whose historical relationships with the land continue to this day.

We feel extremely privileged to learn, work, teach, and play on this beautiful territory.

Hello!

On behalf of the Department of Psychology and as the instructors of this course, we welcome you to Psychology 100B! This is a course we are passionate about and we hope to engage those of you interested in majoring in psychology, as well as those of you who are non-psychology majors, in reflecting on how psychology can be used to tackle important issues in our communities and more broadly, in the world.

We hope this course will interest and challenge you. Did you know that Introductory Psychology is one of the most popular classes in post-secondary institutions world-wide? Psychology, as a field of study, has obvious intrinsic appeal: exploring the nature and causes of human behaviour is exciting! Yet the very accessibility and familiarity of psychology can pose a problem. Although we believe we have good, common-sense views of psychology, our perspectives are fundamentally shaped by our personal experiences, our contexts, and our folk wisdom. Our perspectives might not all be wrong, but they can sometimes interfere with our approaching the study of behaviour from other points of view. We are here to help you explore this issue both in this course and in the future, if you advance in further psychology courses.

This semester, we have almost 1000 UVic students taking Introductory Psychology in sections A01, A02, and A03. Although it may not be possible for us to meet with all of you personally, we really like to engage in conversations with as many of you as we can. We encourage you to take the initiative and make contact with us during our various office hours, before/after class, or by e-mailing us with a question about psychology.

We wish you the best for a successful and productive learning experience in Psychology 100B!

Dr. Jhotisha Mugon – Course Coordinator
Instructor of section A02 & A03 (12:30pm & 1:30pm)

Dr. Jessica Rourke

WHOM SHOULD I CONTACT IF I HAVE A QUESTION?

Because we have almost 1000 students in this course, it can take us a little while to respond to your email – we thank you in advance for your patience and understanding! Often, the questions we receive could have been immediately answered because the answer is in this course syllabus! Please, before you send us a question, check if the answer is in this course syllabus or other documents in Brightspace. You can use the search function on Brightspace or in documents to look for keywords. Another good option is to check if your peers know the answer to your question (e.g., post your question in the relevant discussion forum section!).

If the above ideas don't yield you an answer, use the list below to determine whom to contact with your question/comment. In your subject heading, please include "PSYC 100B" and your section number (A01, A02, A03) and the name of your TA (if you are e-mailing your TA).

MATERIALS: WHAT WILL I NEED FOR THIS COURSE?

Required Text

- Myers, D. M. and DeWall, C. N. (2018). Psychology (13th ed.). Worth Publishers You can purchase this edition of the textbook through the UVic Bookstore. We recommend ordering your textbook as soon as possible because it may take some time for you to receive it (even the ebook!). Throughout the course, you should have continuing access to it in order to master the material.
- Achieve (online study resource; optional) comes included with the textbook if you purchase it through the UVic bookstore. Although not required for the course, we recommend purchasing it, as it will help in your learning of the course material. To access the Achieve platform, use the first link under the “accessing your textbook” section below.
- You have the option to purchase a new text in one of two ways:
 - as looseleaf pages that go into a binder ($136) OR as an ebook ($66)

Both options include access to online resources, including an online version of the text at the publisher’s Achieve website (see “Optional Online Resource Material” below for more information) and free access to the iClicker Student App. To purchase your textbook and Launchpad, go to the UVic bookstore website then search for “Psyc 100B” (and whichever section you’re registered in: A01, A02, A03):

<https://www.uvicbookstore.ca/text/>

Accessing your textbook

To access the textbook online ("Achieve") platform

- To make it easy to return to, please bookmark the page.
- For further guidance on accessing and utilizing Achieve, see:
<https://macmillan.force.com/macmillanlearning/s/article/Achieve-Getting-Started-Guide-for-Students>
- You can reach a virtual representative 24 hours a day, 7 days a week through the online form:
<https://macmillan.force.com/macmillanlearning/s/chat-with-us>

Access to Technology

As a UVic student, you get free access to Microsoft 365, including access to OneDrive storage and Microsoft Office applications. Information about Microsoft 365 and instructions to access it can be found on UVic’s Microsoft 365 site (<https://onlineacademiccommunity.uvic.ca/O365/>). If you have questions, contact UVic’s computer help desk – see their website for various contact options and hours of operation for any technology questions/issues: <https://www.uvic.ca/systems/services/helpsupport/computerhelpdesk/>

Required Technology

- iClicker Personal Response System. This is necessary in order for you to participate in the class and 4% of your final mark is based on that participation. There are two options:
 - 1) iClicker Student Mobile App. This application can be used on a personal device (laptop, smartphone, or tablet). If you purchase a 13th edition textbook through UVic Bookstore, the text will come with a free one-year subscription to the online software. In order to receive your 4% participation points, you must create an account (<https://student.iclicker.com/#/login>).
 - 2) iClicker 2. iClicker 2 is a physical remote that can be purchased at the bookstore new or used and it will be usable in other courses that use iClickers. It can also be sold back to the UVic bookstore just like with textbooks. Only the second-generation iClickers can be used. If you use the original iClicker you may not be able to respond to all the questions in class. In order to receive your 4% participation points, you must register your iClicker online at the UVic website (<http://www.uvic.ca/iclickerreg>) and not the iClicker.com website.

- See page 12 and on Brightspace for more information.

Course Website

- The PSYC 100B website is accessible through the UVic Brightspace system (<https://bright.uvic.ca/d2l/home/265306>). This site includes all course material, including lecture slides, chapter summaries, quizzes, and critical thinking topics. At first, you'll only see the section "Getting Started." This section will contain the course syllabus, information on how to access the textbook and Achieve, and some general tips to help you be successful in this course. Complete the syllabus quiz in that section to unlock the rest of the available course material
- NetLink ID: To access the PSYC 100 Brightspace you need a valid UVic NetLink ID. To register, go to the Netlink website (<http://netlink.uvic.ca/>) and follow the directions there. If you cannot access our Brightspace site after receiving your NetLink ID, please contact the Computer Helpdesk (helpdesk@uvic.ca; 250-721-7687).

WHAT IS THIS COURSE ABOUT?

Psychology is an exciting and complex scientific discipline and is an essential part of the helping professions. We have designed PSYC 100A and PSYC 100B to provide an overview of:

- the main areas, findings, and methods of modern psychology
- various theoretical perspectives and professional orientations within psychology
- scientific methods of gathering information and forming conclusions from the study of human behaviour and functioning
- psychological principles that serve as a foundation for taking more advanced courses in psychology and related disciplines
- how psychological principles have been used to help people lead better, healthier lives, and to solve real world problems
- how to locate and utilize psychological research information

PSYC 100A focuses on the historical, methodological, biological, learning, and cognitive aspects of psychology. PSYC 100B focuses on human intelligence, personality, lifespan development, psychological disorders, and psychological treatment. You do not have to take PSYC 100A after you have completed PSYC 100B, but you should be aware that if you wish to take any further courses in Psychology at the University of Victoria you must complete both PSYC 100A and B.

What is the Format of the Class?

Our course is divided into Modules which correspond to a chapter in the textbook. Modules will be released weekly (just after midnight on Saturdays), according to our class topic schedule. For each Module there will typically be:

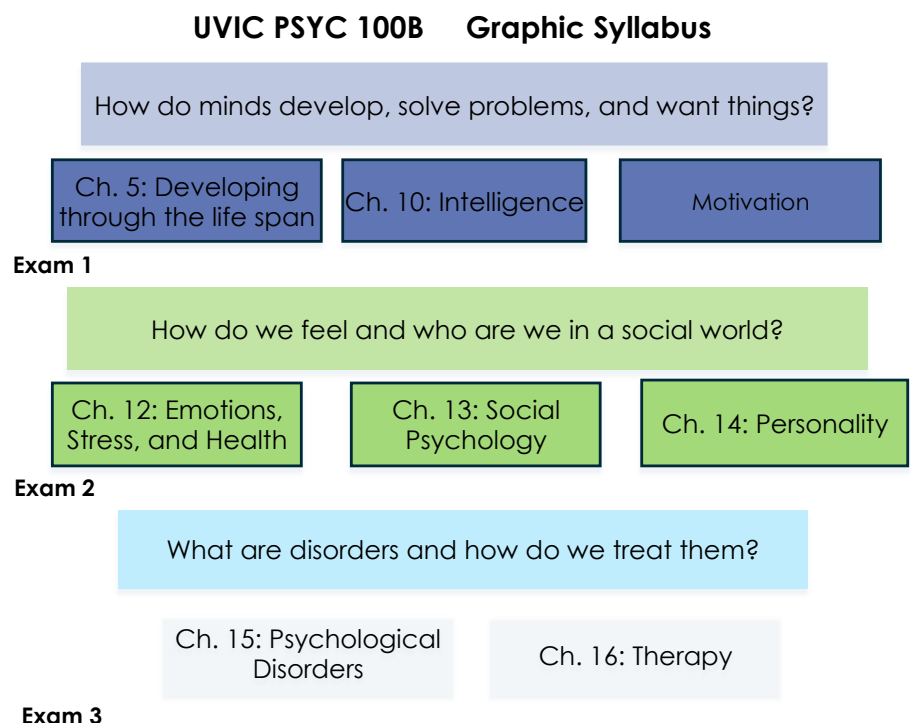

- one assigned textbook chapter for you to read
- a chapter summary that highlights important course concepts
- lecture slides that correspond to the weekly class content
- a short online quiz related to the chapter material (prior to exams, there will also be a pre-exam quiz)
- online discussion critical thinking topics
- recordings of the Tuesday and Wednesday class sessions (note...we can't guarantee the recording – technology sometimes has a mind of its own and lets us down!). Remember to bring your iClicker remote (or app) to class and use it to submit responses to surveys and questions asked in class
- at times, there may be some additional learning material (e.g., a short video, podcast, interactive activity)

How is this course delivered?

Each week, you have three in-person class sessions in MAC (MacLaurin building) A144. We will cover material related to the chapter in various forms – through lecture, demonstrations, discussion, and videos with guided questions. Tuesday and Wednesday classes are generally lecture based and Friday classes provide a somewhat different learning experience. The Friday classes often involve a video/lecture with guided questions, a guest lecture, or a research demonstration/discussion. Materials such as guided video questions for Friday classes will be available before class on Friday however, we may not post the answers to the video questions discussed until the Tuesday following. Material from Friday classes is testable on exams, as is other class material.

We will do our best to record Tuesday and Wednesday sessions using Echo360 for the rare times you cannot attend, however, we cannot guarantee the technology will work or will be of good quality, so please do your best to make it to class. Friday classes will not be recorded, but Friday class material will be posted on Brightspace by the following Tuesday. Please do not attend class if you are ill.

On the right is a graphical representation of the order in which we will cover course content this term. The chapters covered this term represent the overarching Social and Applied Emphasis of this introductory course.

*We expect you to complete all course requirements, however, please note you must complete all 3 exams to receive credit for this course. Students who do not complete all 3 exams will receive an "N" (failing) grade.

In accordance with the University's policy on academic concessions, "A student who completes all course requirements is not eligible for an academic concession". Consequently, students can only request deferrals for the completion of required course components (i.e., the 3 exams) and not for non-essential course components

Cutoff Points for Marks

A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	D	F
90-100	85-89	80-84	77-79	73-76	70-72	65-69	60-64	50-59	0-49

Exams (59%)

You will write three in-class exams. Exams are non-cumulative which means they will only cover material since the previous exam. All course material is testable (lectures, textbook chapters, supplementary materials). The format of all 3 exams will be multiple choice and will take place during the scheduled class period for your registered section. The exam for each lecture section is different. Be sure not to schedule any trips that overlap with exam dates and notify your family not to schedule any trips for you that overlap with the exam dates. You are responsible for attending exams as scheduled, writing your own exam, and for respecting the academic integrity expectations of the university.

What to do if I miss an exam due to illness:

Contact the Course Recordkeeper by email p100off@uvic.ca as soon as possible and explain that you missed the exam and why (you do not have to submit the Request for Academic Concession form as it only applies to exams that are written in the final exam period). The Course Recordkeeper will inform you when your make-up exam will be held.

If you miss an exam and fail to contact the Course Recordkeeper within seven days of the exam date, we will consider you to have not completed a major course requirement and will assign an N mark (failure due to not completing a course requirement) for the course. Please reach out to the Course Recordkeeper on how best to proceed.*

What to do if I require exam accommodations due to an accessibility need:

1. You must be officially registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning – please see <https://www.uvic.ca/services/cal/online-services/register/index.php> for more information. We will automatically be informed of your registration with them. It can take a little while for all the necessary forms to be processed by CAL, so we recommend reaching out to them as soon as possible.
2. Prior to your exam, if you have any questions about your accommodation, please contact the course record keeper (p100off@uvic.ca).

Quizzes (16%)

Why do we assign online quizzes?

We have designed the Online Chapter Quizzes on Brightspace to give you an added incentive to keep up with your reading in the course and to give you some practice in utilizing and applying the concepts and studies discussed in the textbook:

- Because it is much easier to start learning the course material well in advance of the night before the exam, we have arranged for you to complete online quizzes on a regular basis.
- If your experience matches that of students in previous years, you'll find the quizzes beneficial because they help to motivate and structure your studying.
- The quizzes consist of 8 chapter quizzes designed to encourage you to complete the necessary pre-class readings and 3 pre-exam quizzes designed to encourage that you study well in advance of each exam.

Although the chapter quizzes are due near the end of the coverage of a chapter in class, you might find it beneficial to read the chapter in the textbook and complete the chapter quiz early on in the week. Although you're only required to complete 8 out of 11 quizzes, we strongly encourage you to complete all 11 (only your top 8 marks will count toward your grade!) so as to allow the best chance for high marks (added bonus: they will help you to absorb the material for the exams!).

You are strongly advised to complete the quiz at least one day before the due date of the quiz. That way, you will have time to seek help if you have technical issues, or if you get sick the day the quiz is due. Late submissions will not be accepted.

What if I miss an online quiz?

You will have 11 quiz opportunities during the semester but only your best 8 of the 11 will count toward your grade. If you miss one, it can simply be dropped as one of your 3 “freebies.” The 8-out-of-11 system is designed to give you flexibility in case you have a week where personal or other circumstances keep you from completing the quiz on time.

If you choose to discard your flexibility early in the semester and then something comes up later, you will unfortunately have no other option than to accept a low (or zero) mark on a quiz. Because you can miss 3 quizzes and still obtain full marks for the quiz component, there are no additional opportunities to complete make-up quizzes for any reason (including illness). The “extra” three quizzes are considered as make-up quizzes.

What if I have technical issues logging on or completing the quiz?

Brightspace will close the quizzes automatically at the designated due dates and times on the schedule. Please make sure you have completed the quiz by this time – due date extensions will not be permitted. We strongly suggest you attempt the quizzes at least one day prior to the due date, to allow you time to reach out for assistance if you encounter any issues.

- If you have a technical problem completing a quiz: check with the Computer Help Desk (helpdesk@uvic.ca; 250-721-7687). Please indicate whether you are having a NetLink or Brightspace problem.
- If you are still stumped, contact the PSYC 100 office at p100off@uvic.ca. But please follow the steps above before you do, as the Computer Helpdesk is more likely to be able to provide immediate assistance.

APA Assignment (4%)

We will base 4% of your final grade on an assignment that relates to APA formatting and research study methodology. The assignment will be formatted as a quiz, but it will not be timed. You can feel free to use your textbook, the posted APA video, notes you’ve made, etc.

To properly complete your critical thinking topics (see below), you will need to have a firm grasp of APA formatting (rules regarding the writing style of psychology assignments) as well as certain research methodology approaches in the field.

This assignment will be completed prior to you completing your first critical thinking topic, to help support your performance on your critical thinking topics throughout the semester.

Critical Thinking Topics (15%)

Twelve percent of your grade in PSYC 100B is derived from your regular contributions to the critical thinking topics that you submit on Brightspace.

- You are required to submit 3 of the 6 possible critical thinking topics. These are typically due on Mondays at 10pm
- To give you flexibility, you can submit a maximum of 4 of the 6 scheduled critical thinking topics, and only your best three will count. This means that if you choose to do 4, then only your best 3 will count.
- If you submit 5 or 6 your 5th and 6th ones will not be looked at/graded.

Your critical thinking topics will be completed on Brightspace and involve answering a posted discussion question that may include one or more sub-questions. Your response should address all the sub-questions, integrate scientific research, demonstrate accurate knowledge of the material, and should not be an unsupported opinion. In other words, you need to do some academic research to support your response!

The critical thinking topics are completed within Brightspace and are not expected to be long (200-1000 words). More information about the format of the critical thinking topics is provided on Brightspace (in the "Assessment Information" section).

Why do we assign critical thinking topics?

Exams and quizzes assess your learning of material covered in recorded lectures, the textbook, and a bit of supplementary material. Critical thinking topics are designed with the following goals in mind:

- Curiosity and research are critical components to success in university. These critical thinking topics give you an opportunity to ask and answer relevant questions that go beyond what you learned in lectures and the textbook.
- Learning from your peers and contributing to their learning experience are core aspects of the university experience. These critical thinking topics give you an opportunity to share information and ideas about different topics with your classmates and to learn from the ideas and reasoning of your classmates.
- Effective research and writing are foundational to succeeding in university. These critical thinking topics will help you learn how to search for, read, and summarize psychology research articles and use the articles to support your reasoning.
- Work written in psychology must be formatted using the American Psychological Association (APA) style (currently, the 7th edition of that style). These critical thinking topics give you the opportunity to learn how to engage in scholarly writing by correctly using APA 7th edition style in your writing, in-text citations, and references.

What do I do if I miss a critical thinking topic?

- Because you only need to complete 3 of the 6 critical thinking topics, the additional critical thinking topics serve as "make-up" critical thinking topics and thus we do not offer any additional make-up critical thinking topics.
 - It is in your best interest to complete the critical thinking topics scheduled earlier in the term and use the later ones in the term as "supplementary" ones to be used if you wish to improve your mark or if you missed one of the earlier ones because of illness or a personal emergency.

Clicker Participation (4%)

We will base 4% of your final grade on your in-class participation using the iClicker Personal Response System. Please note, the iClicker Student (formerly iClicker Reef) app/program is included for free when you purchase your textbook through the UVic bookstore. If you already have a physical iClicker remote (either from a previous class or a former student), you can also use that. You can also purchase an iClicker remote if you would like, but it is not necessary.

Why do we use clickers in class?

Clickers are used as a way to work together through questions posed in class. When used effectively, iclickers can increase your ongoing engagement and involvement, promote a safe environment to communicate your answers, and create lively discussions in class. Clickers can also provide immediate feedback about your understanding of the class material and help us figure out how to improve your understanding of a concept.

How do I receive points for using my iClicker in class (follow the 3 steps outlined below)?

Step 1:

1a. If you have the iClicker Student app (free if you purchase the textbook from UVic bookstore)

- Create an account (<https://student.iclicker.com/#/login>) with your campus email address: make sure you add your correct student ID number (e.g., "V00123456") to your profile section. If you're using the app, you must register this way to receive participation marks in the course.
- Download the iClicker Student app iOS or Android app from your iTunes or Play store.
- Enter your access code (received when you purchased a new textbook from the UVic bookstore. If you did not purchase your textbook from the bookstore, you can purchase an iClicker Student app subscription from the bookstore). Follow these steps to enter your access code in your account:
 - Log in to your iClicker account using a web browser (access codes cannot be entered via the smartphone or tablet apps). If you are using a smartphone or tablet, simply use the web browser on your device to follow the steps below.
 - Click the "Menu" icon in the upper left corner and select "Subscriptions"
 - Click "Polling"
 - Click "Enter Access Code" and enter the code
 - Click "Submit" (clicking submit more than once can give you an error message, so click the back arrow to see when your subscription expires if you get an error message)

1b. If you have an iClicker 2 Remote (looks like a TV remote)

- If you prefer not to use the iClicker student app with your own device, you can instead purchase an iClicker remote from the UVic bookstore (<https://www.uvicbookstore.ca/>) for a price of approximately $60.00.
- If you're using the iClicker remote, you must register your remote this way to receive participation marks in the course:
 - Once you have your remote, go to <https://www.uvic.ca/systems/support/learningteaching/iclicker/> and follow the instructions under "iClicker registration"
 - Note that iClicker serial numbers do not contain letter O's, only number 0's
 - For answers to frequently asked questions about the iClicker see: <http://www.uvic.ca/systems/support/learningteaching/iclicker/>

Step 2:

Bring your own iClicker remote or personal device with the iClicker app to class on Tuesdays and Wednesdays

- If you have an iClicker2 remote: Bring your own iClicker2 remote to class and participate.
- If you have the iClicker Student App: You will need to add the course to your course list by selecting the "+" button, typing in your institution ("University of Victoria") and then searching for the course ("PSYC 100A").
 - Make sure you select the right section (A01 is the 10:30am section, A02 is the 11:30am section, and A03 is the 12:30pm section). Once you confirm you've found the right course, click, "Add this Course" and it will show up on your list.

Step 3:

Attend at least 13 of the 17 iClicker classes. Clicker points will be based on participation in PSYC 100 classes on the following 17 dates: Jan 31, Feb 1, 7, 8, 14, 15, 28, Mar 1, 7, 8, 14, 15, 21, 22, 28, 29, Apr 4. You need to participate in at least 50% of the polling questions in any given class session to receive the participation mark for that class session.

If you participate in clicker questions in 13 or more classes, you will receive the maximum 4% of your final grade.

- If you participate in fewer than 13 classes, you will receive the following percentages:

12 classes: 3.7%	9 classes: 2.8%	6 classes: 1.8%	3 classes: 0.9%
11 classes: 3.4%	8 classes: 2.5%	5 classes: 1.5%	2 classes: 0.6%
10 classes: 3.1%	7 classes: 2.1%	4 classes: 1.2%	1 classes: 0.3%

What if I miss an iClicker class?

- The level of participation required to receive maximum points requires you to participate in approximately 75% of all classes to allow you to not participate for up to four classes (due to illness, sports competitions, low batteries or missing clickers, technical malfunction, etc.) and still receive your maximum clicker points. For this reason, there is not an opportunity to “make up” or prorate clicker points if you do not participate in class.
- It is an academic infraction to use another student’s clicker in class or ask another student to submit clicker responses on your behalf. This will be treated similarly to other academic infractions (such as cheating on an exam) and will be subject to university disciplinary procedures. Please remember that the clickers provide you with an opportunity to enhance your in-class learning, and it is expected you will cooperate in making the system work to help you and your colleagues learn.

What if I attend a PSYC 100B class section different than the one in which I’m registered?

- Because of seating capacity, you should only be attending the course section (A01, A02, A03) for which you are officially registered. Additionally, because of the way the system is set up, you can only receive iClicker points by using your iClicker in the PSYC 100A section in which you are officially registered. For example, if you are registered in the A01 section, but attend the A02 section, although your iClicker will still work in the A02 section, you will not receive iClicker points for that session and we will not be able to transfer iClicker points to your proper section.

When will I see my iClicker participation grades?

- Updated clicker records will generally be posted to the Brightspace page (under “Grades”) within two weeks after Exam 1 and Exam 2. We hope to have your final clicker totals posted on the Brightspace page shortly after Exam 3. If you have a question about your iClicker points, please address them to us within 2 business days of Exam 3 as the final grades are calculated shortly after Exam 3, and your iClicker totals, as posted, will be used to calculate your final grade.
- If you are using the iClicker student app, please do not rely on your grades on the app to calculate participation. The iClicker totals posted in Brightspace are the ones we use to calculate your final grade. If there is any discrepancy between the iClicker student app and Brightspace please contact the course Record-Keeper.
- It is important that you check your clicker record by March 1 to make sure that you have at least one clicker point posted, and you are receiving correct credit for your clicker participation. Only students who have a posted record on Brightspace of at least one clicker point by this date will be eligible to receive any clicker points for the term. Students who do not have any posted clicker points by March 1 will receive 0 on their final clicker total (out of 4%) regardless of clicker activity after that date. This deadline is in place to ensure that any clicker registration issues are rectified early in the term, and to encourage students to begin their clicker participation as early as possible.
- If you have questions about your clicker points, please contact the Course Recordkeeper at p100off@uvic.ca; or drop by during their office hours (posted Brightspace).

Online Surveys or Mini-Assignments (2%)

We will base a percentage of your final mark (2%) on your participation in Internet-based surveys or Mini-assignments. There are four such surveys/ mini-assignments and you will receive 0.5% (of your final mark) for each survey or mini-assignment you complete. We have designed these activities to help you you're your academic term as well as gather feedback from you regarding various aspects of the course. One important function of the web surveys is to provide the instructors with feedback from you regarding aspects of the course such as T.A. performance. The surveys are completed typically within Brightspace.

You are strongly advised to complete the survey/ Mini-Assignment at least one day before the due date of the survey. That way, you will have time to seek help if you have technical issues, or if you get sick the day the survey is due. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Extra Credit for Research Participation (+4%)

You can earn up to 4% bonus credit (added to your final grade in the course) by participating in research projects. An important component of this course is for you to learn about research in psychology. Faculty and advanced students in the Department of Psychology will be conducting research throughout the year, performing studies exploring processes such as social interaction, perception, memory, problem solving, and communication. We encourage you to participate in this research, and as part of this encouragement, we have arranged for you to earn extra credit toward your course mark by participating in approved research.

By participating in such research projects, you will experience first-hand how psychological research is done. Once your participation in a study is complete, you will receive a full description of the purpose of the research.

- In most projects, your participation involves having your responses recorded or measured as you perform a task or complete a questionnaire. A Departmental committee has reviewed and approved all the projects that are available to you for bonus points, and the projects have also been approved by the University's Human Research Ethics Board. Some projects may be conducted in person and others conducted on-line.
- The aim of these research projects is not to evaluate your personal abilities, but to explore various features of human behaviour and discover how they change under different conditions. Researchers will protect your confidentiality. Your performance (i.e., the responses you make) will have no effect on your marks.
- You will receive 0.25 points for each 15 minutes (or part thereof) of participation, up to a maximum of 4 points. You may participate in as many projects as you wish, but you will receive no more than 4 points per term, and you may not carry over points from one term to another. Note that while we have set 4 points to be a maximum, the opportunity to earn all 4 points may not be available, as this depends on the number of research projects requiring participants.
- You may participate in any given project only once. The last day for participation in experiments for extra credit is the last day of classes (Thursday April 6).

If you do not wish to, or cannot, participate in research studies for any reason, but still wish to have the opportunity to earn an equivalent amount of extra credit, you may contact your course coordinator no later than Feb 15 to arrange for an alternative option involving written assignments. Information about how to sign up for research participation is available on Brightspace.

If you have any questions related to credits that you've earned through the SONA system, please contact the SONA coordinator at psycresearch@uvic.ca

WHAT ARE YOU EXPECTING FROM ME?

Psychology is a scientific discipline, and as such it requires considerable thought and time to develop an understanding of psychological research and principles. We expect you to complete the assigned weekly materials, to attend and engage in class sessions, to attend office hours when needed, and to spend several hours a week (between 7 – 10 hours: this includes the 3 hours in class each week) toward mastering the course material.

Attend class sessions and office hours

Although not mandatory, attending our class sessions 3 times a week will help increase your understanding of the material and provide you with opportunities to engage with and discuss the material with the instructor and your classmates. We encourage you to bring your questions and ask for clarification, or to bring examples you found useful in illustrating some of the concepts (this could be a video, article, or your own knowledge). If you need some support outside of class time, please drop in to one of our in-person or virtual office hours! See page our Brightspace page for office hour times and locations.

Manage your time

Courses can be tricky to complete if you don't stick to a schedule. Be prepared for exams by completing the assigned readings, chapter quizzes, and other assignments/activities in accordance with the schedule provided above. Set aside blocks of time each week to work on the course material, and engage with your classmates (e.g., set up a study group – we have a discussion forum to help you do that!).

Check the Brightspace website often

All course materials (e.g., course schedule, assignment information) will be available through Brightspace: <https://bright.uvic.ca/d2l/home/265306>. Although we will do our best to also post class recordings to Brightspace, the best way to learn and engage with the material is to attend your scheduled class whenever possible.

Conduct yourself appropriately

Please listen to and interact with others in a respectful manner. We are all very diverse and have different values, beliefs, and opinions – maintain an open mind to these differences. You may debate with others who hold opinions different from your own, but you must always remain respectful.

Provide constructive feedback

We always welcome ideas to improve this course and to facilitate learning. We encourage you to provide constructive feedback about your experiences in the course. Please send us an email or see us in office hours to discuss your suggestions.

Let us know if there are any special circumstances

Each of us learns in different ways and with varying degrees of success. If you know of any factors in your life that might impact your ability to learn up to your potential in this course, please contact the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL: <https://www.uvic.ca/services/cal/index.php>) The CAL staff are available by appointment to assess specific needs, provide referrals, and arrange for appropriate accommodations. We will automatically be notified if you receive any CAL accommodations.

Be discriminate in sending e-mails to the PSYC 100 team

We really do want to hear from you! However, in a very large course like Psyc 100B, email “overload” can cause problems. Unrestricted or indiscriminate use of email to pose questions and ask for information can overwhelm the limited resources that TAs and instructors have to answer emailed requests. To help us manage our email load, please follow these guidelines:

- For e-mail, please include “Psyc 100B:” and your section number in your subject headline. If you're emailing your TA, please also make sure to include their name. Before you compose your e-mail, check the course syllabus, your notes, with your classmates, and on Brightspace to see if you can locate the answer to your question.

When to email us:

- ✓ To notify the Course Recordkeeper that you will have to miss an exam due to a medical emergency or a documented family emergency.
- ✓ To ask a simple, short question, e.g., “What is the date, time, and location of the make-up exam?”
- ✓ To comment about course material, e.g., “I was thinking about that case of dissociative identity disorder that you described in class, and I wondered if ...” We are very happy to receive and respond to such comments. We also recommend that instead of emailing us a comment like that, you see us after class or pop into one of our office hours!
- ✓ To make a comment about something you liked or something you think could improve the course. Please be aware that specific, constructive comments are more useful than general ones.

When not to email us:

- ✗ When the answer to your question can be found in this course syllabus – please make sure you look through the syllabus before emailing us!
- ✗ To request information about a specific mark (assignment, exam, final grade, or bonus points). We post this information on the course website and expect you to access your marks there.
- ✗ To request information about why you received a particular mark. Please see your TA during office hours with such questions. These kinds of questions usually require a direct interpersonal interaction that is not effectively carried out via email.
- ✗ To ask for advice on improving your study techniques. This also requires a direct interpersonal interaction. See the section on “Getting Started” on Brightspace for some studying suggestions and/or drop in to one of our office hours.

What can I Expect from the PSYC 100 Team?We are available to help

We are available to help via e-mail and office hours. See section “Whom should I contact if I have a question” on page 4 to find the correct person to e-mail.

Please attend office hours for your more detailed or complicated questions. We will be available during office hours to discuss your grades, understanding of the material, or discuss more generally your interest in Psychology. We offer office hours on most days of the week, at various times, and some are in-person while others are on-line.

We will upload class lecture slides and chapter summaries on Brightspace

We will post these slides and summaries each week. Supplementary material, which is designed to provide more in-depth examples and information related to core concepts may also be uploaded. When possible, Tuesday and Wednesday lecture-based classes will be recorded and uploaded. More details on how to access these recordings (which are copyrighted and for your personal use in this course only) will be provided in class and on Brightspace

We will give and receive feedback

We will be available in office hours to give feedback on the critical thinking topics and exams. We are also open to receiving constructive feedback about your experiences within the course.

HOW CAN I DO WELL IN THIS COURSE?

Check that you have completed all the work. Keep up with the readings, lectures, quizzes, iClicker participation, and critical thinking topics. These are designed to help you keep up with the material throughout the semester. Because extra “make-up” quizzes, iClicker opportunities, and critical thinking topics (beyond those necessary to receive full marks) are already scheduled, additional make-up quizzes, iClicker opportunities, and critical thinking topics are not arranged. It is therefore important to submit things well before the deadlines (to avoid technical problems or illness) and complete all required course components by the due dates.

Check your performance early in the course. Make sure you check your grades for the various components ahead of time so any discrepancies can be resolved early in the semester. It is also important to check your marks on the exams. If you are not getting the marks you want, come to office hours to ask for help improving the way you study the material. At the end of the term, if you are short of your target (pass, C+, A+), there are no extra opportunities to improve your grade.

Create study groups. You can regularly meet in-person or online in groups of 2-6 people (you can of course be more, but we’ve found that range to be ideal for study groups) to work through the material together. Not only can it be helpful to have others explain concepts to you, but it can also be helpful to have to explain concepts to others – in fact, that’s one of the best ways to learn!

SUPPORTING AN EFFECTIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Respect for Diversity

Our intent is that:

- students from diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served by this course
- students' diverse learning needs be addressed
- the diversity that students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength, and benefit.

Our intent is to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender, sexuality, disability, age, socio-economic status, ethnicity, race, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. In a constructive way, please let us know how we might improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally or for other students or student groups.

TAKING CARE OF MYSELF

Being a student can be stressful! Please take care of yourself – eat well, exercise, get enough sleep, take some time to relax, and talk to someone if you’re feeling overwhelmed. This will help you achieve your goals and cope with stress. You are not alone – all of us benefit from support during times of struggle.

IMPORTANT UVIC COURSE POLICY INFORMATION

UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA

Department of Psychology

Important Course Policy Information

Winter Session 2022/23

Accessible Learning: The University of Victoria is committed to creating a learning experience that is as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience any barriers to learning in this course, please feel welcome to discuss your concerns with me. If you have a disability or chronic health condition, or think you may have a disability, you may also want to meet with an advisor at the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL).

Attendance and Absences: Attendance is important. Students are expected to attend all classes in which they are enrolled. Students may be assigned a final grade of N or debarred from writing final examinations if they fail to satisfy a minimum attendance requirement set by the instructor for lectures, laboratories, online course discussions or learning activities, tutorials, or other learning activities set out in the course outline.

Medical documentation for short-term absences is not required (approved by Senate). Students who cannot attend due to illness are asked to notify their instructors immediately. If illness, accident, or family affliction causes a student to miss the final exam or to fail to complete any required assignment/assessment by the end of the term students are required to submit a request for academic concession (see below).

Children and Pets: If you need to bring your children or pet to class, please do not hesitate to do so. It is understood that sometimes this is necessary due to care circumstances. However, please aim to have minimal class disturbance so that student learning is not impacted.

Class Recording and Auto-Captioning Statement: The instructor may record class sessions and those recordings may be made available to all students in the class via Brightspace. If you have questions or concerns regarding class recording and privacy please contact privacyinfo@uvic.ca

Auto-generated captioning may be enabled in this course. Auto-captioning is highly error-prone, especially for specialized terminology and proper names. Students are asked to refer to the audio feed for clarification of any errors. If you find captioning errors that are offensive, please contact your instructor and/or teaching assistant so that they are aware. If you require captions as part of an academic accommodation, please contact CAL.

Commitment to Inclusivity, Diversity, and Respectful Environments in the Classroom and Online

The University of Victoria is committed to providing a positive and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members. All members of the university community have the right to this experience and the responsibility to help create such an environment. The University will not tolerate racism, sexualized violence, or any form of discrimination, bullying, or harassment.

Please be advised that, by logging into UVic's learning systems or interacting with online resources and course-related communication platforms, you are engaging in a University activity.

All interactions within this environment are subject to the university expectations and policies. Any concerns about student conduct may be reviewed and responded to in accordance with the appropriate university policy. To report concerns about online student conduct: onlineconduct@uvic.ca

Copyright

All course content and materials are made available by instructors for educational purposes and for the exclusive use of students registered in their class¹. The material is protected under copyright law, even if not marked with ©. Any further use or distribution of materials to others requires the written permission of the instructor, except under fair dealing or another exception in the Copyright Act. Violations may result in disciplinary action under the Resolution of Non-Academic Misconduct Allegations policy \(AC1300\) or the Academic Integrity Policy, whichever is more appropriate for the situation.

Course Experience Survey (CES)

The instructor values your feedback on this course. Toward the end of term, you will have the opportunity to complete a confidential course experience survey (CES) regarding your learning experience. The survey is vital to providing feedback to the instructor regarding the course and their teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. When it is time for you to complete the survey, you will receive an email inviting you to do so. If you do not receive an email invitation, you can go directly to <http://ces.uvic.ca>. You will need to use your UVic NetLink ID to access the survey, which can be done on your laptop, tablet or mobile device. You will be reminded nearer the time, but please be thinking about this important activity, especially the following three questions, during the course.

1. What strengths did your instructor demonstrate that helped you learn in this course?
2. Please provide specific suggestions as to how the instructor could have helped you learn more effectively.
3. Please provide specific suggestions as to how this course could be improved.

Disclaimer

The above schedule, policies, procedures, and assignments in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.

Grading

In classes that are based on a percentage grading scheme, the following Undergraduate Grading Scale is used

Grade	A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	D	F
Percentage	90-100	85-89	80-84	77-79	73-76	70-72	65-69	60-64	51-59	< 50
GP Value	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0

Rounding is only applied to the final grade and is rounded up at the 0.5% level (e.g., 84.49% is round to 84% and 84.50% is rounded to 85%).

Medical Documentation for absences: No medical documentation for short-term absences is required (Approved by Senate). If you are seeking a Withdrawal Extenuating Circumstances or an Aegrotat grade, medical documentation may be required if relevant.

Ombudsperson and Academic Concerns: From the course calendar...

Depending on the nature of the academic matter of concern to the student, the order in which the student should normally try to resolve the matter is: first, the course instructor; second, the Department Associate Chair; third, the Dean of the faculty; and finally, the Senate.

If you are having an academic concern or problem that cannot be resolved with your instructor or the Department Associate Chair, you may wish to consult with the Office of the Ombudsperson (<https://uvicombudsperson.ca>). Current contact information for the office can be found here <https://uvicombudsperson.ca/contact/>.

Policy on Academic Integrity including Plagiarism and Cheating

The Department of Psychology fully endorses and intends to enforce rigorously the Senate Policy on Academic Integrity. It is of utmost importance that students who do their work honestly be protected from those who do not. Because this policy is in place to ensure that students carry out and benefit from the learning activities assigned in each course, it is expected that students will cooperate in its implementation.

The offences defined by the policy can be summarized briefly as follows:

1. Plagiarism. You must make sure that the work you submit is your work and not someone else's. There are proper procedures for citing the works of others. The student is responsible for being aware of and using these procedures.
2. Unauthorized Use of an Editor. The use of an editor is prohibited unless the instructor grants explicit written authorization.
3. Multiple Submission. Only under exceptional circumstances may a work submitted to fulfill an academic requirement be used to satisfy another similar requirement. The student is responsible for clarifying this with the instructor(s) involved.
4. Falsifying Materials Subject to Academic Evaluation. This includes falsification of data, use of commercially prepared essays, using information from the Internet without proper citation, citing sources from which material is not actually obtained, etc.
5. Cheating on Assignments, Tests, and Examinations. You may not copy the work of others in or out of class; you may not give your work to others for the purpose of copying; you may not use unauthorized material or equipment during examinations or tests; and you may not impersonate or allow yourself to be impersonated by another at an examination. The Department of Psychology has a policy of not making old examinations available for study purposes. Therefore, use of old exams without the express written permission of the instructor constitutes cheating by the user, and abetting of cheating by the person who provided the exam.
6. Aiding Others to Cheat. It is a violation to help others or attempt to help others to engage in any of the conduct described above.

Instructors are expected to make every effort to prevent cheating and plagiarism. This may include the assignment of seating for examinations, asking students to move during examinations, requests to see student identification cards, and other measures as appropriate. Instructors also have available to them a variety of tools and procedures to check for Internet and electronic media-based cheating. In instances of suspected or actual plagiarism or cheating, instructors, following prescribed procedures, are authorized to take steps consistent with the degree of the offence. These measures will range from a zero on the test or assignment or a failing grade for the course, probation within a program to temporary or even permanent suspension from the University.

Rights of Appeal are described in the Policy on Academic Integrity in the University calendar January 2023.

Prerequisites: Students who remain in courses for which they do not have the prerequisites do so at their own risk. Students who complete courses without prerequisites ARE NOT exempt from having to complete the prerequisite course(s) if such courses are required for the degree program.

Program Requirements: For more information see the UVic Calendar.

Registration Status: Students are responsible for verifying their registration status. Registration status may be verified using My Page, View Schedule. Course adds and drops will not be processed after the deadlines set out in the current UVic Calendar.

Students who do not attend classes must not assume that they have been dropped from a course by an academic unit or an instructor. Courses that are not formally dropped will be given a failing grade, students may be required to withdraw and will be required to pay the tuition fee for the course.

Request for Academic Concessions: In the Event of Illness, Accident or Family Affliction

Request for Academic Concession form: <http://www.uvic.ca/registrar/assets/docs/record-forms/rac.pdf>

- What to do if you miss the final exam scheduled during the formal exam period
Apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession", normally within 10 working days of the date of the exam. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation (for example, a deferred exam). Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student's academic record.
- What to do if you miss an exam other than one scheduled during the formal exam period
Do not apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession". Instead, contact your course instructor (or designated teaching assistant) to let them know why you missed the exam and include the in-course extension form if required. Medical documentation is not required.

- What to do if you require additional time to complete core course requirements
Apply at Records Services for a “Request for Academic Concession”, normally within 10 working days of the end of the course. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation. Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student’s academic record if the missing work has been deemed required. Note, only required course components may be deferred.

Research Participation Opportunities with the Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology offers multiple opportunities to participate in research studies over the year. Students are encouraged to learn more about the field of psychology by volunteering in these studies. Information about studies can often be found posted on notice boards around the Department as well as through our Participant Pool webpage at
