
Psychology 251 (A02) – Introduction to Mind and Brain

Spring 2021 (Jan-April)

M & Th, 8:30-9:50 am

Online (Zoom & Brightspace)

COURSE INFO

Instructor: Iris Gordon

E-mail: igordon@uvic.ca

Office hours: M, 10:00 – 11:00 am (Zoom)

Teaching Assistant: TBD

E-mail: TBD

Office hours: TBD

Summary

This course will focus on the relationship between mind and brain, and the methods we use to investigate neural systems and their related behaviours. Topics will include neuroanatomy, cognition and neuropsychology, and neuroimaging.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, you will have....

- an understanding of the relationship between brain structures and behaviour.
- knowledge regarding neuroimaging methods and how they inform theory.
- the methods and measures we use to investigate mental processes.
- foundational information regarding sensation, perception, cognition and attention.
- learned to think factually, applicative, and conceptually about ideas.

REQUIREMENTS

Registration

Before you take this course, you must have completed the following:

- Psyc 100A
- One of: Psyc 100B, BIOL 184, BIOL 186

The last day to add courses is January 22nd, and the final course drop deadline is February 28th. It is the student's responsibility to check their registration status by these deadlines to ensure they are registered only in courses they have been attending.

Materials

Readings

Eagleman, D., & Downar, J. (2016). Brain and Behavior: A Cognitive Neuroscience Perspective (1st Edition). New York, NY: Oxford University Press.

The textbook is mandatory and can be purchased in several formats (hardcopy or digital). Please note that I will provide text pages based on the hardcopy, and headers for digital copies.

Optional Software

Williams, S. M., & White, L. E. (2013). Sylvius 4 Online: An Interactive Atlas and Visual Glossary of Human Neuroanatomy. Sunderland, MA: Sinauer Associates, Inc.

The license is bundled with the purchase of new textbook at UVic Bookstore. I will not assign any content or graded materials from it, however this a good resource for students who want more hands-on experience.

Online Resources

1) Brightspace: <https://bright.uvic.ca> You will need your netlink ID & password.

Here you will find:

- General resources (timeslot sign-ups, & prep pages)
- Lecture slides, recordings & videos
- Quizsignments
- Midterms

2) Zoom: <https://uvic.zoom.us/j/99433687333?pwd=N0tZTm9HUIJ1YnVPVyt6TTNmS0xiUT09>

You will need your netlink ID & password.

This virtual communication module will be used for class lectures and office hours. Installation instructions can be found on Brightspace.

Course Format

This course will be synchronous.

Lectures will be held via Zoom on Mondays and Thursdays (class time). It is expected that students who sign-up for the course are available during class time. Lectures will be recorded and posted thereafter on Brightspaces for further access.

Each topic will be accompanied by slides, a video recording, and Quizsignment. You are responsible for completing the necessary readings and Quizsignments as per the schedule (see calendar below).

Intellectual Property Notice

All course content and materials are made available by instructors for educational purposes and for the exclusive use of students registered in their class. The material is protected under copyright law, even if not marked with a ©. Any further use or distribution of materials to others requires the written permission of the instructor, except under fair dealing or another exception in the Copyright Act. Dissemination of course materials is considered a Violation of Academic Integrity.

- You do not have my permission to share the course materials.
- Do not use your classmates' email for any commercial reasons.

Evaluations

Evaluation Tool	Percent of Grade	Date(s)
Syllabus Quiz	0%	Access denied until complete
Mid-term #1	25%	Monday Feb 8 th
Mid-term #2	25%	Monday Mar 15 th
Mid-term #3	25%	TBD Final Exam Period
Quizsignments	25%	See schedule (10:00 pm)
Bonus	2%	Friday Apr 9 th

Criteria

A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C*	D	F
90-100	85-89	80-84	77-79	73-76	70-72	65-69	60-64	50-59	0-49

- You must complete all three exams to receive credit for the course. Students who do not complete all three exams will receive an "N" grade (see below for exam policies).

- If you do not complete the Quizsignments, you will be given a grade of 0 (zero) for that component and this will be used in calculating your final grade.

Midterms (75%)

Midterms will consist of a mixture of multiple choice, fill in the blank & short answer. Please note that vacations, weddings, trips, or other courses are not acceptable excuses for missing midterms. Content will be derived from both the text and lecture materials.

- “The Iris Special”: In order to alleviate some test anxiety, your best midterm will be increased by 5% weighing (i.e. from 25% → 30%), while the weight of your lesser midterm will reduced by 5% weighing (i.e. from 25% →20%).

Midterm Absences

You are responsible for attending exams as scheduled. If you miss an exam due to illness/accident or a death in the family, you must e-mail me as soon as possible to indicate that you were absent and the reason for it. Whereas you are not required to provide documentation for academic concessions during the Spring 2021 term, it is appreciated.

A make-up examination will be scheduled within 7 days of the missed exam. Make-up exams will not necessarily have the same format as the midterm. Should the student be unable to take the remake, further discussion will be required.

Students who do not contact me in regards to a midterm absence will receive an “N” in this course.

The Final Exam is subject to the University’s policy on missed examinations; please see “What to do if you miss the final exam scheduled during the formal exam period” below.

Quizsignments (9 x 2.77% = 25%)

Each chapter will be accompanied by an on-line activity that will remain active during, and a little after we complete the chapter lecture. This will allow students to accommodate their learning styles while avoiding cramming for the Midterm. The goal of this activity is to have you think deeper about the material by encouraging your thought process from factual to application and conceptual thinking.

- no extensions, make-ups or substitutions will be permitted; failure to complete a relevant quiz will result in a “0” for the associated 2.77%.

In order to mitigate for any potential problems, the syllabus quiz will double as a practice opportunity to make sure students can access and understand the quiz layout.

Bonus (2%)

There are two options to choose from. Students cannot do both for additive/double credit.

SONA

You may participate in the Psychology Research Participation System (SONA). You will receive 1% bonus points for each 1 credit of participation.

Research Art Project

You will be required to create an art piece that contrasts a psychological function, ability or process in both typical and abnormal form. You will receive credit based on fulfilling the criteria of the project (and not content). Instructions will be posted on Brightspaces.

All credit allotment and art projects must be allocated or submitted, respectively, by 4:30 pm on April 9th, 2021.

POLICIES

Respect

We are all very diverse and have different values, beliefs, opinions and cultural backgrounds. Class time is meant to discuss ideas, and you may encounter opinions that you do not share with others. Maintaining an open mind refers to listening, considering other's perspectives and experiences, and accepting those ideas even if you do not agree with them.

Respect also includes creating a safe environment conducive to learning, which means optimizing everyone's needs while also not distracting, hindering, or impeding other's ability to listen, learn and study. This holds for virtual environments as well – just because there is a screen between you and others does not invalidate proper interpersonal behaviour. Some tips for on-line environments include:

- Mute your microphone if you are not speaking (to reduce background noise)
- Turn your camera on when possible (to create a sense of community and engagement)
- Use the “raise hand” feature rather than typing questions/comments in the chat box (to reduce distractions as well facilitate better dialogue)
- Use the chat field/whiteboard for constructive comments (be respectful and mature)
- Make sure to review your comments before posting them, and/or to be as polite as possible when speaking with your camera off (the lack of nonverbal cues may colour your comments differently to unknowing listeners)
- Try to be patient and understanding with others (technological limitations are not other's fault, and sometimes a comment wasn't meant the way it was interpreted)

Extraneous Circumstances

Life happens! If you find yourself in a position where completing course requirements is not possible, or if something comes up that's affecting your progress/abilities, please come speak to us BEFORE a due date. Extensions, exemptions, or negotiations will not be granted on or after a deadline.

Contacting Us

Office Hours

No appointment is needed if you will be attending regular office hours (denoted above). If you would like to book an appointment outside this time, please e-mail us. The Instructor will be available to discuss your grades, material, or more general topics about psychology, whereas the TA can aid in learning/understanding course material. Please be advised the TA has no power to change grades or postpone due dates; the TA is a learning resource.

E-mail

When e-mailing the Instructor or the TA, please...

- include “psyc251” in your subject headline or the e-mail will not reach us!
- include your name and student number at the bottom of the e-mail
- allow 24 hours (1 day) for a reply before resending the e-mail again
- do not contact us through Brightspace instant messenger; we will not reply

UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA
Department of Psychology

Important Course Policy Information
Winter 2020-2021

Prerequisites

Students who remain in courses for which they do not have the prerequisites do so at their own risk. Students who complete courses without prerequisites ARE NOT exempt from having to complete the prerequisite course(s) if such courses are required for the degree program.

Program Requirements

For more information see the UVic Calendar September 2020.

Registration Status

Students are responsible for verifying their registration status. Registration status may be verified using My Page, View Schedule. Course adds and drops will not be processed after the deadlines set out in the current UVic Calendar.

Commitment to Inclusivity and Diversity

The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing and protecting a positive and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members.

In the Event of Illness, Accident or Family Affliction

- What to do if you miss the final exam scheduled during the formal exam period

Apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession", normally within 10 working days of the date of the exam. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation (for example, a deferred exam). Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student's academic record.

OR, you can download the Request for Academic Concession form here:

<http://www.uvic.ca/registrar/assets/docs/record-forms/rac.pdf>

- What to do if you miss an exam other than one scheduled during the formal exam period

Do not apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession". Instead submit documentation of the illness, accident or family affliction directly to your course instructor (or designated teaching assistant).

- What to do if you require additional time to complete course requirements

Apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession", normally within 10 working days of the end of the formal examination period. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation. Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student's academic record.

Policy on Academic Integrity including Plagiarism and Cheating

The Department of Psychology fully endorses and intends to enforce rigorously the Senate Policy on Academic integrity https://www.uvic.ca/calendar/future/undergrad/#/policy/Sk_0xsM_V?bc=true&bcCurrent=08%20-%20Policy%20on%20Academic%20Integrity&bcGroup=Undergraduate%20Academic%20Regulations&bcItemType=policies. It is of utmost importance that students who do their work honestly be protected from those who do not. Because this policy is in place to ensure that students carry out and benefit from the learning activities assigned in each course, it is expected that students will cooperate in its implementation.

The offences defined by the policy can be summarized briefly as follows:

1. Plagiarism. You must make sure that the work you submit is your work and not someone else's. There are proper procedures for citing the works of others. The student is responsible for being aware of and using these procedures.

2. Unauthorized Use of an Editor. The use of an editor is prohibited unless the instructor grants explicit written authorization.
3. Multiple Submission. Only under exceptional circumstances may a work submitted to fulfill an academic requirement be used to satisfy another similar requirement. The student is responsible for clarifying this with the instructor(s) involved.
4. Falsifying Materials Subject to Academic Evaluation. This includes falsification of data, use of commercially prepared essays, using information from the Internet without proper citation, citing sources from which material is not actually obtained, etc.
5. Cheating on Assignments, Tests, and Examinations. You may not copy the work of others in or out of class; you may not give your work to others for the purpose of copying; you may not use unauthorized material or equipment during examinations or tests; and you may not impersonate or allow yourself to be impersonated by another at an examination. The Department of Psychology has a policy of not making old examinations available for study purposes. Therefore, use of old exams without the express written permission of the instructor constitutes cheating by the user, and abetting of cheating by the person who provided the exam.
6. Being an Accessory to Offences. This means that helping another student to cheat (for instance, by showing or communicating to them answers to an assignment, or by allowing them to view answers on an exam) is an academic offence.

Instructors are expected to make every effort to prevent cheating and plagiarism. This may include the assignment of seating for examinations, asking students to move during examinations, requests to see student identification cards, and other measures as appropriate. Instructors also have available to them a variety of tools and procedures to check for Internet and electronic media-based cheating. In instances of suspected or actual plagiarism or cheating, instructors, following prescribed procedures, are authorized to take steps consistent with the degree of the offence. These measures will range from a zero on the test or assignment or a failing grade for the course, probation within a program to temporary or even permanent suspension from the University.

Rights of Appeal are described in the Policy on Academic Integrity in the University calendar September 2020.
