SOCl 210
Classical Social Theorizing

Course Description

This course examines the emergence of sociology. The main ideas, concepts, theorists, and schools of thought composing the history of the discipline are reviewed, as well as the social and historical context(s) from which they arose.

Readings

3. Additional readings will be made available during the term.

Evaluation

Three non-cumulative in-class exams 55% (20%, 20%, 15%)
Take-home final exam 45%