SOCI 281¹
Sociology of Genders

Instructor: Dr. Aaron Devor
Email: ahdevor@uvic.ca
Webpage: http://web.uvic.ca/~ahdevor
Phone: (250) 721-7577
Office: COR A367
Office Hours: Tues 4:30-5:30 PM and Tues 9:30-10:00 PM

Course Description:
An examination of sociological, theoretical and historical perspectives on genders.

Course Pre/Co-requisites: none

Topics May Include:
Introduction to sociological perspectives on genders. Examines both the gendering of everyday social interactions and the role of genders in structuring major social institutions. Topics may include the relation of genders to sexuality, bodies, work, race and ethnicity, sports, media, education, politics, violence, and/or other ways of organizing social interactions. Intersections between genders and other forms of social inequalities will be considered.

Required Resources May Include:
There will be a textbook and some required readings for this course. The full course syllabus will specify the assigned readings for each week. They will either be in your textbook or available at no cost through the library or Course Spaces. You will be required to do your readings BEFORE each class.

Please note: This will be a 3-hour evening course that meets once a week.

¹ This online outline is only intended to give an overall sense of the course. Detailed course outlines will be made available for all registered students on the first day of class. Only those outlines are to be considered official.