

Genevieve (Genny) Thompson Biography:

Genny Thompson (she/her) is an uninvited mixed settler who has had the privilege of being raised on the unceded territory of the Lekwungen people. Genny has worked at the University of Victoria since 2014 in multiple roles and departments and she is currently the Associate Director of Undergraduate Programs at the Gustavson School of Business.

Genny received her BA in Psychology from the University of Victoria and is currently completing her MA in Conflict Analysis and Management at Royal Roads University. Genny is a passionate advocate for student-centric learning, EDI initiatives, and relational practice. Genny currently lives on T'Sou-ke Nation territory with her partner, two daughters, and their two cats.