

Dr. Erin J. Campbell, Professor
Art History & Visual Studies

Erin Campbell holds a PhD in Art History from the University of Toronto and is Professor and Chair of the Department of Art History & Visual Studies at the University of Victoria. Over a 23-year career at UVic, she has received awards for both research and teaching, with significant support from SSHRC. Her leadership experience includes two terms as Chair, a two-year term as Graduate Advisor, and a two-year term as Vice President of the UVic Faculty Association. She currently holds the UVic FA Chairs and Directors Portfolio and serves on the UVic Board of Governors, Senate, and the Executive Committee of that Faculty Association. As a strong believer in collegial governance, she has contributed to numerous university councils, committees, and search committees over the course of her career at UVic.
