

Mandeep Kaur Mucina, MSW, PhD, Professor and Director of the School of Child and Youth Care, University of Victoria. With extensive experience in community-engaged research, Dr. Mucina works with Black, Indigenous, and racialized women and girls. Her expertise includes narrative and life-history research, action-based research, critical discourse, policy and practice analysis, South Asian feminisms, and intersectionality-based research. She is co-leading an SSHRC-funded research project titled Bordering Practices: Systemic Racism, Immigration, and Child Welfare. Mandeep has offered service to multiple spaces across UVic including the Faculty Association Secretary, the Advisory Group for the Chairs and Director forum and council, the President's search committee, and the Advisory for the Increasing Equity Recertification Course. Mandeep also serves as the Liaison support for BPoC members who are working with EQHR through the Faculty Association.