

Tim Anderson Biographical Sketch

-Appointment Committee for Dean, Faculty of Education-

Tim Anderson is an Associate Professor in the Department of Curriculum & Instruction and has been at the University since 2016. His research explores intersections between TESOL and the Internationalization of Higher Education. He has multiple SSHRC awards and has published in leading journals in his field. Relevant to this application, he has served on three national SSHRC adjudication committees, including one term as Alternate Chair, and has participated in several faculty search committees at UVic and UBC (including three CRC searches, one ADUP search, and two Department Chair searches).

2025 - Canada Research Chair: Indigenous Education, University of Victoria

2025 - Chair: Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Victoria

2025 - Assistant Teaching Professor: Art Education, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Victoria

2023 - Canada Research Chair: Indigenous Education, University of Victoria

2021 - Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs: Faculty of Education, University of Victoria

2020 - Assistant Professor: Art Education, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Victoria

2018 - Assistant Professor: Educational Technology, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Victoria

2018 - Assistant Professor: Indigenous Education, University of Victoria

2017 - Chair: Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Victoria

2013 - Canada Research Chair: Department of Language & Literacy Education, University of British Columbia

He will bring an open-mind and collaborative spirit to the appointment process.