Short Biography and Statement of Candidacy

Andrew Newcombe

Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations, Faculty of Law

Professor, Faculty of Law

I joined the Law Faculty in 2002 and teach contracts, commercial and consumer law, international arbitration, and international economic law. My research focuses on investment treaty law and arbitration and I supervise LL.M and Ph.D. students in this area. I have served on numerous Faculty committees, including Admissions, Appointments, Dean Search, Equity, Graduate Studies, and Reappointment, Promotion and Tenure. In addition, I have acted as co-chair of two ad hoc committees, one on curriculum reform and pedagogy and another on Faculty teaching workload. At the University level, I have served on the University Academic Appointments Committee and the Board of Directors of CFUV. As a first term Senator, I have served on the Senate Committee on Planning and the Senate Committee on Academic Standards. I am currently serving as Associate Dean, Academic and Students Relations. In this capacity, I am engaged with academic policies and governance issues on a daily basis. I have been an active participant at Senate and it would be an honour to contribute to the university through continued service on Senate.
