

Benjamin Fyfe is a third year student at the University of Victoria currently pursuing a Bachelor of Commerce with a specialization in International Business. He has completed a certificate in Chinese Cultural and Language Proficiency from UVic and is a recipient of the Pat Fafard Scholarship. Prior to his current education, he graduated from St. Michaels University School with a Dogwood Diploma where he was a student ambassador, and a member of the student council. In terms of work experience, Benjamin has been employed as a Project Coordinator at BC Pension Corporation, where he was successful in coordinating multiple phases of multi-million dollar projects. He has also worked as a Lifeguard, Team Lead, and Swim Instructor at Oak Bay Recreation Centre he also holds the same position at the University of Victoria. He has also volunteered as a Council Member for Victoria Youth Council where he collaborated with a diverse group of youth to explore issues relevant to Victoria's young adults and presented proposals to Victoria's mayor and council. Ben is also actively involved in extracurricular activities both in and out of the university, such as UVic JDC West as a former team captain, Canadian International Council as a member, the University of Victoria Tennis as team captain, and Model United Nations as a delegate. He is fluent in English, proficient in Mandarin and has basic knowledge of French. He has interests in travel, current events, and sports. If elected Ben would stand for increasing the student voice as well as improving the efficiency of UVic's governmental structure.