Dr. Sara Humphreys Biographical Sketch

Dr. Sara Humphreys has been an Assistant Teaching Professor at the University of Victoria since 2017 and an Associate Teaching Professor since 2023. She serves on Senate (2023-2026) as well as a variety of committees and working groups, including the Senate Committee on Honorary Degrees and Other Forms of Recognition, Chair of the Class Size Working Group, the Faculty Association Collective Agreement Committee, among several others. Sara was the acting director for the Academic and Technical Writing Program (2022-2023). Prior to her position at the University of Victoria, she served as the Vice President of the Trent University Faculty Association and as a Member-at-Large for the St. Jerome's University Faculty Association executive committee. At both institutions, she was a member-at-large on Senate. She is active in her field, winning a SSHRC Knowledge Synthesis Grant in 2023. She has a strong belief in the interconnectedness of teaching, research, and service.
