a. President’s Report

Prof. Cassels provided a report to members of Senate. He acknowledged the recent posting of anti-Semitic posters on campus and commented on the university’s response. In response to a question about protections for vulnerable students, Prof. Cassels said there was a heightened level of vigilance on campus and that concerns and suggestions should be referred to the Office of Equity and Human Rights.

Prof. Cassels provided information on the upcoming Convocation ceremonies and the Victoria Forum. He reported on a recent UVic mission to Asia which involved meetings in Vietnam and China. In response to a question, Prof. Cassels commented on the long history between UVic and institutions in Vietnam. He also provided further details regarding agreements and partnerships discussed with universities in these countries.

With respect to matters at the provincial level, Prof. Cassels reported that the research universities had presented sector-wide priorities to the new government. These included student support, support for graduate students, the expansion of technology programs, infrastructure, and research support.

b. Update on strategic planning process

Prof. Cassels introduced an update on the strategic planning process. Mr. Tony Eder, Executive Director Academic Resource Planning, reviewed the consultation process that had unfolded to date. In particular, he commented on the engagement process that had taken place using Thoughtexchange. Mr. Eder reviewed some of the themes emerging from the consultations which included our academic environment, our learning environment, sustainable futures, research impact and excellence, commitment to Indigenous opportunity and reconciliation, looking forward, and organizational effectiveness. He commented on next steps, which included an opportunity for members of Senate and the Board of Governors to engage in conversation during the upcoming Joint Senate Board Retreat.

A question was raised regarding how comments regarding diversity and equity had featured in the consultations. Mr. Eder said comments regarding equity and diversity had been present across the emerging themes. He clarified that the emerging themes identified in the presentation were high level categories and did not capture the details of feedback received during the consultations.

A question was raised about opportunities for student engagement. Mr. Eder provided details about student participation rates in the Thoughtexchange process, and also on consultation sessions with student groups. A question was raised about engagement opportunities for retirees. Prof. Cassels commented that the Thoughtexchange process had provided an opportunity for engagement by all members of the university community.
