2nd Call for Nominations

Members Elected by the Faculties

- Faculty of Graduate Studies – one faculty member
- Faculty of Law – one faculty member

Nomination Form

The Nomination Form must be signed by no fewer than three persons who are eligible to vote in the election and must be accompanied by a signed statement from the candidate that he or she is willing to stand for election.

Candidates are to submit a brief biographical sketch and statement of candidacy (not to exceed 300 words). This material will be made available on the University Secretary’s website and on the WebVote ballot. Please email an electronic copy of your bio and statement of candidacy to usec2@uvic.ca.

A scanned copy of the completed nomination form is acceptable as long as it is received in the Office of the University Secretary by the deadline, and as long as the original nomination form is sent to the Office of the University Secretary immediately. The email address for scanned documents is usec2@uvic.ca.

A nomination is not valid unless it is received in the Office of the University Secretary no later than 4:30 p.m. on Monday, January 13, 2020.

Eligibility

Persons eligible to stand for election, to make nominations and to vote shall be regular faculty members. The Senate, using the definition in the University Act, has specified that “faculty member” is a person who is classified in University records as “faculty” and designated as “regular, at the rank of lecturer, assistant teaching professor, teaching professor, assistant professor, associate professor or professor, or in an equivalent position designated by the Senate”. (This excludes employees classified as “visiting”, “adjunct”, or “sessional.”)

The Senate has further determined that a faculty member on leave of absence or study leave from the University of Victoria continues to be eligible to vote and to hold office on the Senate and the Board of Governors subject to the rules of those bodies.

Withdrawal

Withdrawal by a person duly nominated as a candidate for election shall be made in writing to the University Secretary (see Rules to Govern Elections to the Board of Governors and the Senate, section 8.1).

Term of Office

The term of office for these positions on Senate begins on July 1, 2020 and end on June 30, 2023.
