

Acting Vice-Provost Goals, 2021/22

Cultivate an Extraordinary Academic Environment, Locally and Globally

- Lead and support learning continuity during the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond to ensure students meet their learning goals; faculty and instructors are supported in the design and delivery of quality academic programming; and the university is best positioned to recover and improve our learning environment
- Lead the development of UVic's Micro-credential Strategy within BC's new Micro-credential Framework
- Support the advancement of anti-racism and equity initiatives, including enhancing education and training programs and the launch of anti-racism grants to redesign and develop courses
- Oversee the Distinguished Women's Scholars Series to bring influential and impactful women to campus to engage and inspire our communities
- Lead efforts to develop a campus-wide approach to diversity admissions
- Support the first year of refreshed Planning Tools reporting, <https://www.uvic.ca/enhancedplanning/>
- Lead decanal searches
- Support academic EDI initiatives within the Office of the Vice-President Academic and Provost (VPAC), including co-chair of the Academic Advisory Committee on Equity and Diversity and chair of the Advisory Committee on Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Advance Research Excellence and Impact

- Use Planning Tools to assess progress (scale and scope) on the integration of research and education and other markers from the Strategic Research Plan
- Support the expansion of opportunities for undergraduate research

Foster Respect and Reconciliation

- Support EQHR and VPAC EDI initiatives, goals and priorities, including the development of UVic's equity action plan
- Member of the Reflection and Challenge Committee to lead the co-creation of the institutional equity action plan

Promote Sustainable Futures

- Provide leadership to COVID-19 response and recovery to support sustainability across all operations
