

*Equity and Human Rights Office provides advice to the Provost and the University Executive. The office is a resource to the VPAC portfolio on diversity, human rights, sexualized violence prevention and response, review of policies and the development of employment equity plans.