Exam booklet printing agreement awarded to UVIC and SFU

The University of Victoria and Simon Fraser University have been awarded a sector-wide master agreement for the annual printing of exam booklets for institutions in the BC Public Post-Secondary Purchasing Consortium.

The master agreement covers the production and supply of consolidated annual orders of exam booklets for the participating institutions for a three-year term, with the option of extending the agreement for two one-year terms.

The master agreement was awarded on July 2, 2015, following an evaluation process developed and led by the Exam Booklet evaluation group: Ian Medcalf, CAPU; Brigitte Priebe, UBC; and Laura Simonsen SFU.

Under the master agreement, each participating institution is a separate legal entity and will contract individually with the University of Victoria and Simon Fraser University through the issuance of Purchase Orders. Participating entities may or may not place orders in a given year.

Further information on ordering exam booklets under this new master agreement is attached. The University of Victoria and Simon Fraser University will be responsible for coordinating and producing the exam booklets for participating PSIs and ensuring delivery of the finished products.

“This is what the ASDT initiative is all about – finding synergies that work amongst the PSIs and driving operational efficiencies”, said Mark McLaughlin, Executive Director at SFU and Lead for the Print Services Working Group.
